Alaska State Law AS 23.40.210 provides that collective bargaining agreements include a pay plan with a Cost of Living Differential (COLD) between the salaries paid to employees residing in Alaska and employees residing outside of Alaska.

The Department of Transportation and Public Facilities verifies residency status of all current AMHS employees with the Permanent Fund Dividend Division in the Department of Revenue. This is done on an annual basis. You must complete and submit this form certifying that you are a resident of the State of Alaska in order to be eligible for COLD. Submission of this certification is a requirement of all Alaska Marine Highway employees.

A "resident of the State of Alaska" means you are physically present in the state with the intent to permanently remain and make a home in the state. You may not be claiming residency outside the state or obtaining benefits under a claim of residency outside the state. The required presence of an employee at a work station, including an Alaska Marine Highway vessel, where room and board are provided or reimbursed by the employer will not be considered a physical presence in the state or physical absence from the state for the purpose of determining eligibility for cost of living differential. See, AS 01.10.055 (Definition of State Resident) and AS 23.40.210 (Authorization for COLD)

Please check all boxes that apply:

I am now and intend to remain an Alaskan resident. I have been an Alaskan resident since _____.

Since claiming COLD, I have not claimed residency in another state.

I am not an Alaskan resident, and am not applying for COLD.
