ATTACHMENT 1

WFR CATEGORY 2 - APPLICABLE FILINGS AND DECREES

The Salt River Project objects to DWR's inaccurate reporting of the decree "claim date" listed in the "Applicable Filings and Decrees" section. The decree matched to this PWR declares a priority date that is earlier than the "claim date" assigned by DWR. The correct decree date, therefore, should have been reported and used as a basis for determining the apparent date of first use (0430). This objection applies to: DM001.

* * * *

The Salt River Project objects to DWR's failure to sufficiently research court records in preparation of this PWR's Watershed File Report (WFR). DWR has not fulfilled its statutory duty to "[l]ocate, procure and make available all public and other records relevant to determination of any factual or legal issues." A.R.S. § 45-256(A)(2). SRP's research has disclosed a lower court decision and/or other relevant court records that pertain to this Watershed File Report, but DWR has not reported such information. For further background to this objection, see the Salt River Project's objections to Volume 1 of this HSR attached to this objection and incorporated herein by reference (0430). This objection applies to: DM001.

WFR CATEGORY 8 - PWR SUMMARY

The Salt River Project objects to the absence of an apparent date of first use for this domestic Potential Water Right (PWR). Under A.R.S. § 45-257(B), the attributes of decreed rights, including dates of priority, are presumed valid, except as to issues of abandonment. The Watershed File Report (WFR) indicates that DWR did not assign an apparent date of first use in accordance with the date of priority set forth in the decree matched to this PWR. The WFR fails to articulate sufficient evidence to refute the decreed priority date. In the absence of such evidence, the apparent date of first use for this PWR should be the decreed priority date (0910). This objection applies to: DM001.

WFR CATEGORY 9 - QUANTITIES OF USE

The Salt River Project objects to the failure of DWR to assign a quantity of use to this Potential Water Right (PWR). All water rights subject to the court's jurisdiction must be quantified in accordance with A.R.S. § 45-257(B). This PWR is no exception (1010). This objection applies to: DM001.

* * * *

The Salt River Project objects to the failure of DWR to calculate a diversion rate for this Potential Water Right (PWR). All PWRs assigned a point or points of diversion should be assigned a separate diversion rate for each point of diversion. Diversion rates should be calculated at the point of diversion and should include conveyance losses (1010). This objection applies to: DM001.

SALT RIVER PROJECT OBJECTIONS TO
VOLUME 1 OF THE SAN PEDRO RIVER HSR

USE OF COURT RECORDS

(page numbers refer to Volume 1)

Failure to Seek, Obtain, and Use All Court Records
pp. 18-28

The Salt River Project objects to DWR's failure to conduct sufficient research of court records in its preparation of the San Pedro HSR. DWR has a statutory obligation to "Locate, procure and make available all public and other records relevant to determination of any factual or legal issues." A.R.S. §45-256.A.2. No mention of the lower court decisions or other relevant court records is included in the HSR for the following decrees:

Decree	WFR-PWR (V-T-P) [CC #]	Information Available but Apparently Not Used by DWR
Clifford v. Larrieu	112-17-88-DV1 (4-2-390) [CC# 1675]	County Court of Cochise County, No. 11 Injunction, June 15, 1885. Decisions and Findings of Court, September 26, 1885. Proposed Amendments to Findings by Counsel for Defendant. Decree, January 10, 1886. Verdict.
Dyke v. Caldwell	113-12-BD-4-DM4 (5-2-15) [CC# 2696]	First Judicial District, Pima County No. 1314 Findings and Conclusions of Law, March 24, 1887. Decree, March 24, 1887.
Boquillas v. St. David	112-17-88 (4-2-390) [CC# 1675]	Supreme Court of the Territory of Arizona, No. 988. Abstract of Record.
Pyeatt v. Huachuca Queen	111-19-DC-10-DM1 (3-2-265) [CC# 0212] 111-19-DDC-1- DM1, IR1, SP1 (3-2-266) [CC# 0213]	County Court of Cochise County, No. 7069 Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, May 25, 1899. Judgement, May 25, 1899.

These court records contain valuable information on places of use or diversion, priority dates and other factual background.

WFR CATEGORY 2 - APPLICABLE FILINGS AND DECREES

The Salt River Project objects to DWR's inaccurate reporting of the decree "claim date" listed in the "Applicable Filings and Decrees" section. The decree matched to this PWR declares a priority date that is earlier than the "claim date" assigned by DWR. The correct decree date, therefore, should have been reported and used as a basis for determining the apparent date of first use (0430). This objection applies to: DM001, IR001 and SP001.

* * * *

The Salt River Project objects to DWR's failure to sufficiently research court records in preparation of this PWR's Watershed File Report (WFR). DWR has not fulfilled its statutory duty to "[l]ocate, procure and make available all public and other records relevant to determination of any factual or legal issues." A.R.S. § 45-256(A)(2). SRP's research has disclosed a lower court decision and/or other relevant court records that pertain to this Watershed File Report, but DWR has not reported such information. For further background to this objection, see the Salt River Project's objections to Volume 1 of this HSR attached to this objection and incorporated herein by reference (0430). This objection applies to: DM001, IR001 and SP001.

WFR CATEGORY 8 - PWR SUMMARY

The Salt River Project objects to the apparent date of first use assigned to this Potential Water Right (PWR). Under A.R.S. § 45-257(B), the attributes of decreed rights, including dates of priority, are presumed valid, except as to issues of abandonment. The Watershed File Report (WFR) indicates that DWR assigned an apparent date of first use subsequent to the date of priority set forth in the decree matched to this PWR. The WFR fails to articulate sufficient evidence to refute the decreed priority date. In the absence of such evidence, the apparent date of first use for this PWR should be the decreed priority date (0920). This objection applies to: IR001 and SP001.

The Salt River Project objects to the absence of an apparent date of first use for this domestic Potential Water Right (PWR). Under A.R.S. § 45-257(B), the attributes of decreed rights, including dates of priority, are presumed valid, except as to issues of abandonment. The Watershed File Report (WFR) indicates that DWR did not assign an apparent date of first use in accordance with the date of priority set forth in the decree matched to this PWR. The WFR fails to articulate sufficient evidence to refute the decreed priority date. In the absence of such evidence, the apparent date of first use for this PWR should be the decreed priority date (0910). This objection applies to: DM001.

* * * *

The Salt River Project objects to the weight placed upon aerial photography in determining the apparent date of first use for this Potential Water Right (PWR). Where DWR concludes that no use exists on a parcel as of a given photo date, it does not follow that a claimant either had no water right to start with or abandoned that right by nonuse. Scattered photos reflecting occasional periods of nonuse over a fifty-year time span should not be interpreted by DWR to refute the priority date or dates evidenced by a claimant's previous filings (0910). This objection applies to: SP001.

WFR CATEGORY 9 - QUANTITIES OF USE

The Salt River Project objects to the quantities of use assigned to this Potential Water Right (PWR). The maximum observed and regional methods used by DWR for determining quantities of use for certain agricultural irrigation PWRs are inconsistent with the Arizona doctrine of prior appropriation; these methods are also technically inaccurate. The maximum potential method used by DWR for determining quantities of use is consistent with Arizona law; however, several technical corrections are necessary. For an additional discussion of the problems associated with DWR's methods of quantification for this type of PWR, see the Salt River Project's Volume 1 objections to these methods, a copy of which is attached to this objection and incorporated herein by reference (1020). This objection applies to: IR001.

The Salt River Project objects to the failure of DWR to assign a quantity of use to this Potential Water Right (PWR). All water rights subject to the court's jurisdiction must be quantified in accordance with A.R.S. § 45-257(B). This PWR is no exception (1010). This objection applies to: DM001.

* * * *

The Salt River Project objects to the failure of DWR to calculate a diversion rate for this Potential Water Right (PWR). All PWRs assigned a point or points of diversion should be assigned a separate diversion rate for each point of diversion. Diversion rates should be calculated at the point of diversion and should include conveyance losses (1010). This objection applies to: DM001, IR001 and SP001.

EXCERPT FROM SALT RIVER PROJECT OBJECTIONS TO
VOLUME 1 OF THE SAN PEDRO RIVER HSR

IRRIGATION QUANTITY ESTIMATES

INTRODUCTION

The Salt River Project objects to DWR's estimation methods and results for irrigation water quantities for the following reasons:

First, the Salt River Project objects to DWR's estimation of water duty under both the "maximum observed" and "regional" methods. In the absence of decreed rights, which must be accepted by the court in the absence of abandonment, Arizona law requires that the extent of an appropriative right be measured according to the quantity of water that the appropriator diverted for beneficial use since the time of the appropriation. A.R.S. §45-141(B) ("Beneficial use shall be the basis, measure and limit to the use of water"). Neither the "maximum observed" or "regional" quantification methods employed by DWR properly estimate maximum actual historical beneficial use as required by law.

The Salt River Project supports DWR's estimation of water duty using the "maximum potential" method since, in the absence of sufficient historical records, this method properly estimates maximum actual historical beneficial use.

Second, DWR's method to compute maximum observed water duty does not accurately estimate maximum actual historical beneficial use since it incorporates inaccurate crop irrigation requirements, deficit irrigation, five years or less of crop history, or overly high efficiency estimates.

Third, although DWR has developed new terminology in reporting regional water duties, DWR still uses the Arizona Groundwater Code method of "areas of similar farming conditions" (ASFC), now termed "regional farming conditions" (RFC). The RFC method assigns a weighted average consumptive use requirement to the water duty equation based upon the types of crops recently grown by appropriators in a designated area. Historical information or records evincing an individual claimant's actual cropping patterns and the quantities of water actually used to cultivate such crops since the time of appropriation are not considered. In fact, the Court noted that "[average efficient use] is not directly related to what is the property's water right[s] . . ." (Entitlement Order at 6). Under the prior appropriation doctrine, an appropriator who has grown alfalfa on his property historically is entitled to a water duty that will support alfalfa, regardless of the crops that he or his neighbors are currently growing. Under DWR's "averaging" approach, an appropriator in this situation would be assigned an apparent entitlement inadequate to meet crop needs.

Additionally, under the RFC concept, the efficiency of various irrigation methods is averaged among appropriators, thus further exacerbating the inadequate water duty for the appropriator who does not have a system with above-average efficiency.

Fourth, there are a number of technical errors in DWR's calculation of crop consumptive use including the use of a five year crop history, adjusted weather data, relative humidity, growing season, effective precipitation, crop coefficients, alfalfa stand establishment, deficit irrigation, and efficiency estimates.

Five Year Crop History

pp. 146-151, C-18, C-19, C-68 through C-78

The Salt River Project objects to DWR's use of its five year investigation period for computing acreages irrigated for maximum observed quantification and for computing crop irrigation water requirements for both maximum observed and regional quantifications. Indeed, it appears that DWR has relied heavily on a single year (1990) of crop survey data. The information developed from a single year, or five year period, cannot be used to properly estimate actual historical beneficial use since low consumptive use crops or no crop may be present during the period. Thus, historical cropping practices or completion of a crop rotation are not reflected.

Adjusted Weather Data

pp. C-6 through C-19

The Salt River Project objects to DWR's adjustment of weather station temperatures from recorded values and relative humidities from estimated values. The temperature and relative humidity adjustment procedure is intended for prediction of crop water requirements for large, new irrigation developments where the current observations are from a nearby non-irrigated area. Because of the "clothesline" configuration of San Pedro irrigated areas in relation to the extremely arid surrounding environment, it is extremely doubtful there is any moderating effect due to surrounding irrigated land or to the San Pedro River.

Relative Humidity

pp. C-9, C-17, C-25, C-29, C-34, C-92

The Salt River Project objects to DWR's failure to specify whether it used minimum relative humidity as specified in Food and Agricultural Organization (FAO) Paper 24. Minimum relative humidity is not reported by Sellers and Hill. Furthermore, their 6 p.m. (1800 hours) data must be adjusted downward to reflect lower humidity in mid-afternoon. The proper publication date for Arizona Climate, 1931-1972, by Sellers and Hill, is 1974.

Growing Season

pp. C-20, C-24

The Salt River Project objects to DWR's use of field observations during one or just a few years to estimate the length of growing season for perennial crops. A few field observations of irrigation dates do not define the water use period because water use occurs both before and after irrigation and because growing seasons vary from year to year. Growing seasons can best be determined for perennial crops by a relationship between plant growth and mean temperature or mean date of low temperatures over an extended period of record.

Effective Precipitation

pp. C-38, C-40 through C-49

The Salt River Project objects to DWR's method of estimating non-growing season effective precipitation. The procedure used neglects runoff, uses soil constant values that are highly variable and not well quantified, and is unclear about assumptions of initial soil moisture conditions for each month. Published methods can be used to estimate non-growing season effective precipitation for the winter months, the relevant period for most crops. Furthermore, the Salt River Project objects to DWR's use of a 50 percent probability of precipitation, which results in an inadequate supply in one-half of the years. A 50 percent probability indicates that average effective precipitation is subtracted from crop consumptive use when DWR calculates the irrigation requirement. This means that in years of below-average precipitation, irrigation users would be unable to replace the lack of precipitation with additional irrigation water. The amount of precipitation that is available 80 percent of the time for field crops and 90 percent of the time for orchards and vegetables is appropriate.

Crop Coefficients

p. C-33

The Salt River Project objects to DWR's use of 0.8 as the kc for Winter Pasture. Winter Pasture is a cool-season grass mixture that has a higher crop coefficient than a warm-season grass. SRP also objects to DWR's use of the mean of kc1 and kc3 as a value for kc2, instead of interpolation. Both FAO-24 and University of California Leaflet 21427 specify interpolation.

Alfalfa Stand Establishment

p. C-37

The Salt River Project objects to DWR's failure to include water for alfalfa stand establishment as an "Other Need."

Deficit Irrigation

pp. C-4, C-5, C-54 through C-68

The Salt River Project objects to DWR's use of deficit irrigation values for the maximum observed quantification for water right entitlements. As noted above, maximum actual historical beneficial use is the proper measure of a water right entitlement, not current practice.

Efficiency Estimates

pp. 138-140, C-51 through C-54

The Salt River Project objects to DWR's omission of the effect of a rotation delivery system on On-Farm Irrigation Efficiency. A rotation delivery system reduces On-Farm Irrigation Efficiency below that which can be achieved if irrigation water is available on demand.

The Salt River Project also objects to DWR's use of average estimated values of irrigation efficiency for regional quantification. The use of average efficiencies understates entitlements for one-half of all irrigated acres on this basis alone.

USE OF COURT RECORDS

Failure to Seek, Obtain, and Use All Court Records
pp. 18-28

The Salt River Project objects to DWR's failure to conduct sufficient research of court records in its preparation of the San Pedro HSR. DWR has a statutory obligation to "Locate, procure and make available all public and other records relevant to determination of any factual or legal issues." A.R.S. §45-256.A.2. No mention of the lower court decisions or other relevant court records is included in the HSR for the following decrees:

Decree	WFR-PWR (V-T-P) [CC #]	Information Available but Apparently Not Used by DWR
Clifford v. Larrieu	112-17-88-DV1 (4-2-390) [CC# 1675]	County Court of Cochise County, No. 11 Injunction, June 15, 1885. Decisions and Findings of Court, September 26, 1885. Proposed Amendments to Findings by Counsel for Defendant. Decree, January 10, 1886. Verdict.
Dyke v. Caldwell	113-12-BD-4-DM4 (5-2-15) [CC# 2696]	First Judicial District, Pima County No. 1314 Findings and Conclusions of Law, March 24, 1887. Decree, March 24, 1887.
Boquillas v. St. David	112-17-88 (4-2-390) [CC# 1675]	Supreme Court of the Territory of Arizona, No. 988. Abstract of Record.
Pyeatt v. Huachuca Queen	111-19-DC-10-DM1 (3-2-265) [CC# 0212] 111-19-DDC-1- DM1, IR1, SP1 (3-2-266) [CC# 0213]	County Court of Cochise County, No. 7069 Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, May 25, 1899. Judgement, May 25, 1899.

These court records contain valuable information on places of use or diversion, priority dates and other factual background.

Attachment to Watershed File Report: 111-19-DDC-001

Phoenix objects to Categories 8 and 9 for the reason that: DWR reports that Decree No. 20-0207069 is applicable to DM001 yet DWR fails to report either the decreed volume in the "Quantities of Use" section or the decreed date of first use in the "Potential Water Right Summary." (910) (920) (1010)

Phoenix objects to Category 8 for the reasons that: DWR reports that Decree No. 20-0207069 is applicable to SP001 yet assigns an apparent date of first use of 1984 based on an aerial photo rather than assigning a date based on the decree. (910) (920)

11 - page 28, line 27, of the San Pedro HSR for the reason that the Department of Water Resources has exceeded its jurisdiction in investigating prior decreed rights, as A.R.S. § 45-257(B)(1)
requires such rights to be accepted as res rights which have been previously adjudged or decreed and is entitled to the res judicata effect of the statute and must be accepted by DWR

without further investigation, absent a properly
