3:30 p.m. This is the time set for a virtual Status Conference before Special Water Master Susan Ward Harris. The following parties appear via Court Connect:

Mark McGinnis and Mike Foy for Salt River Project;
John Burnside for BHP Copper;
Bill Anger for the City of Mesa;
Charles Cahoy for the City of Phoenix;
Stephen Cooper for the Town of Mammoth;
Joe Sparks and Laurel Hermann for the San Carlos Apache Tribe;
Kimberly Parks for the Arizona Department of Water Resources;
Sean Hood for ASARCO;
Sue Montgomery for the Yavapai Apache Nation and observing for the Pascua Yaqui Tribe;
Thomas Murphy for the Gila River Indian Community;
Lee Leininger for the United States;
Alexandra Arboleda observing for the City of Flagstaff;
Richard Palmer for the Tonto Apache Tribe;

A record of the proceedings is made digitally in lieu of a court reporter.

Discussion is held regarding the status of the case.

Mr. Cooper informs the Court that the Town of Mammoth has not been able to reach a settlement with the parties.

Mr. Sparks addresses the Court regarding resolving issues and he states that he does not have factual information at this time.

Ms. Montgomery addresses the Court.

Mr. McGinnis addresses the Court, stating that the settlement in terms of the water rights is done, and that any other agreements should be between the parties.

Mr. Cooper states that the parties must reach an agreement regarding the terms for the abstract in order for the Town of Mammoth to accept the agreement.

Based on the foregoing,

IT IS ORDERED the parties shall file a status report and stipulation within 30 days of today's date. If the parties do not file a status report and stipulation, the Court will move forward with setting a schedule and anticipates holding a trial in the fall of 2022.

3:40 p.m. Matter concludes.

LATER: Stipulated abstracts or a status report is due December 20, 2021.
