

Information for Patrol Officers Who Investigate Courage2Report Tips

Courage2Report relies on key relationships with local law enforcement agencies, school resource officers and emergency responders to take action regarding critical, life-saving tips.

Following is a brief overview of how the Courage2Report bystander program operates:

- Students, parents, teachers, community members can call a toll-free confidential tipline - 866-748-7047 - and give a trained professional call taker their information, submit their concern in an confidential online web report, or upload their concern confidentially through the Courage2Report mobile app.
- Calls, web and mobile app reports are answered 24 hours/day, 7 days/week, 365 days/year at the Missouri Information Analysis Center. If you need to speak to an analyst who may have taken a Courage2Report tip, please call 866-362-6422.
- The caller is given a code number and password to preserve their anonymity.
- Caller ID, web tracking and other means of identifying the reporter are only used in life threatening situations.
- Information is forwarded to a team of proper officials, whether it's the school team, law enforcement, or both, who will respond to the concern or threat.
- All valid information received through Courage2Report is forwarded for investigation, to law enforcement, schools, or both, as the severity of the situation dictates.
- Courage2Report tracks the outcome of all forwarded tips through required disposition reporting.

How to provide follow-up once you've investigated:

- If you are a school resource officer or security officer currently assigned to a school, please complete a disposition report using your P3 login information. You will need to enter Disposition/In-Progress Notes, as well as select all applicable outcomes and trends on the right-hand side.
