

Commitment to Privacy

Bridge Lacrosse understands that your information is valuable to you and we are committed to ensuring that information stays private. We appreciate you trusting us that we will do so carefully and sensibly. To better protect your privacy, we provide this Privacy Policy explaining our practices and the choices you can make about the way your information is collected and used by Bridge Lacrosse. The information below explains our policy regarding your privacy, both online and offline. By visiting bridgelacrossedallas.org or sharing personal information with Bridge Lacrosse you are accepting the practices described in this Privacy Notice. Our www.bridgelacrossedallas.org website is maintained by Bridge Lacrosse and hosted through the servers of Squarespace.com.

What personally identifiable information is collected by Bridge Lacrosse?

When you visit our website or make a donation online or offline, you may provide us with personal information (such as name, address, email address, telephone numbers and/or credit/debit card information) that you knowingly choose to disclose, which is collected on an individual basis for various purposes. These purposes include registering to receive email newsletters or other materials, requesting further information from us about our programs and services, donating to us, making requests, submitting a form on our website, or simply asking a question. We receive and store any information you enter on our website or give us in any other way, whether it is online or offline. We ask for personal information so that we can fulfill your request and return your message. Bridge Lacrosse does not collect personal information from you unless you provide it to us. If you choose not to provide any of that information, we may not be able to fulfill your request or complete your order, but you will still be free to browse the other sections of the websites owned and administered by Bridge Lacrosse. This means that you can visit our site without telling us who you are or revealing any personally identifiable information about yourself.

Information Usage

When you supply information about yourself for a specific purpose, we use the information for only that purpose (such as to provide the service or information you have requested). Bridge Lacrosse does not sell, rent, give-away or share its email addresses or other personal contact information with outside sources. Bridge Lacrosse also does not send mailings on behalf of other organizations. Should any material changes be made to the ways in which we use personally identifiable information, Bridge Lacrosse will take commercially reasonable measures to obtain written or email consent from you. We will also post the changes to our use of personally identifiable information on our website at least 30 days prior to a change.

Commitment to Data Security

Personally identifiable information is stored on a Google Drive server and is not accessible by the public. Further, personally identifiable information is only accessed by Bridge Lacrosse personnel on a "need to know" basis. Because we do not operate our own servers, we recommend you read over the privacy policy of both Google.com and our website hosts at Squarespace.com.

Choice/Opt-Out

If you have registered to receive communications from us and later change your mind, you may contact us to have your name and contact information removed from our distribution lists. You have the following options to do this:

You can send an email to: info@bridgelacrossedallas.org

You can send mail to the following address:

Bridge Lacrosse | PO BOX 190844 | Dallas TX 75219

Correct/Update

If you would like to verify the data we have received from you or to make corrections to it, you may contact us directly at the email and mail addresses provided above.

What anonymous information is collected by Bridge Lacrosse?

Anonymous information is collected for every donor and visitor to this site. This includes pages viewed, date and time, and browser type. IP numbers are not stored, but are temporarily used to determine domain type and in some cases, geographic region. We do not make any association between this information and a donor or visitor's identity. When you visit our website, our website makes a log of basic information corresponding to the sites and pages you have visited. This information is stored primarily to track the effectiveness of our website and individual sections and pages within them. At no point do we or can we match this information with a donor or supporter name.

Links

This website may contain links to other Web sites. Please note that when you click on one of these links, you are entering another site. We encourage you to read the privacy statements of these linked websites as their privacy policy may differ from ours.

Email Communications

We publish an e-newsletter that is sent periodically to persons on a listserv. The e-newsletter is distributed by email, although back issues may also be viewed on our website. You may subscribe to or unsubscribe from the email listserv at any time. Occasionally we may send announcements about Bridge Lacrosse events or merchandise to the mailing listserv.

Changes to Privacy Statement

Changing business practices and circumstances may require that we make changes to this privacy policy from time to time. Any changes will be reflected on this website. Bridge Lacrosse reserves the right to modify its website and/or this Privacy Policy at any time and donors and visitors are deemed to be apprised of and bound by any such modifications. Our goal is to provide all services to donors or visitors in an accessible, efficient and friendly manner while maintaining their privacy. If you have comments or questions regarding privacy, please contact us.

Legal Disclaimer

We may disclose personal information when required by law or in the good-faith belief that such action is necessary in order to conform to the edicts of the law or comply with legal process served on Bridge Lacrosse.
