

Ohio Revised Code Section 125.30 Business reply form.

Effective: October 3, 2023

Legislation: House Bill 33

The department of administrative services shall create and administer an online computer network system that allows persons to electronically file business reply forms and, as authorized in the Revised Code, tax information with state agencies or political subdivisions.
