Dear <<Name 1>>:

BioTel Heart¹ is writing to notify you about a recent incident that involves your personal information. We sincerely regret any concern this incident may cause you.

On January 28, 2021, we discovered that a vendor failed to secure certain information about you that was stored online. We immediately took steps to investigate and respond to this incident. Through our investigation, we learned that the information may have been accessible to the public between October 17, 2019 and August 9, 2020. Importantly, there is no evidence to date that your personal information has been misused as a result of this incident. We also confirmed that this incident did not involve information stored by us or our systems.

The affected information included the medical records that the vendor collected from your physician who ordered remote cardiac monitoring services provided by us. These records may have included your name, contact information, date of birth, medical information relevant to our remote cardiac monitoring services (including the name of your prescribing physician, and your diagnoses, diagnostic tests, and treatment), and health insurance information. The records may have also included your Social Security number, even though we do not request or require this information from your physician. Nevertheless, to help you protect your identity, we are providing you with the identity protection services described below at no cost to you.

What we are doing to protect your information:

Please be assured that we are taking this incident seriously to help ensure an incident like this does not happen again. We confirmed that as of August 9, 2020, the vendor secured the information it stored online on our behalf. We also terminated the business arrangement with the vendor responsible for this incident and will require the vendor to securely delete all copies of the records after they securely provide them to us.

To help protect your identity, we are offering a complimentary two-year membership of Equifax[®] Credit Watch[™] Gold, which includes credit monitoring and identity restoration services. You can enroll in these complimentary services by following these steps:

1. ENROLL by: <<Enrollment Deadline>> (Your code will not work after this date)
2. VISIT the Equifax[®] website to enroll: www.myservices.equifax.com/tri
3. PROVIDE the Activation Code: [REDACTED]

Also, please refer to the “Information About Identity Theft Protection” document for additional enrollment instructions and more information.

What you can do to protect your information:

Please be on the look-out for any scams that ask you to provide your personal information in connection with this incident. We and Equifax will NOT call you or send you any email messages asking for your personal information or credit card information in relation to this incident, or send you any email messages asking you to “click” on any links to activate identity protection services. You should not provide information in response to any such calls or email messages, and you should not click on any links within any such email messages. The ONLY ways to contact Equifax or to set up the credit monitoring services we have obtained for you are set forth in this letter.

¹ BioTel Heart also does business as Lifewatch Services Inc. and CardioNet, LLC.

Again, at this time, there is no evidence to date that your personal information has been misused as a result of this incident. However, we encourage you to take full advantage of the identity protection services. You will find additional details about the services in the enclosed "Information About Identity Theft Protection" document.

We sincerely apologize for the inconvenience and concern this incident may cause you. If you have any questions regarding this incident, please call 855-654-0879, Monday through Friday, 9:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m. Eastern Time. (Closed on U.S. observed holidays.)

Sincerely,

Information About Identity Theft Protection

Remain Vigilant. We recommend that you regularly review statements from your accounts and periodically obtain your credit report from one or more of the national credit reporting companies. You may obtain a free copy of your credit report online at www.annualcreditreport.com, by calling toll-free 1-877-322-8228, or by mailing an Annual Credit Report Request Form (available at www.annualcreditreport.com) to: Annual Credit Report Request Service, P.O. Box 105281, Atlanta, GA, 30348-5281. Purchase a copy of your credit report from the national credit reporting agencies listed below.

Equifax: P.O. Box 740241, Atlanta, GA 30374, 1-866-349-5191, www.equifax.com

Experian: P.O. Box 2002, Allen, TX 75013, 1-866-200-6020, www.experian.com

TransUnion: P.O. Box 1000, Chester, PA 19016, 1-800-888-4213, www.transunion.com

When you receive your credit reports, review them carefully. Look for accounts or creditor inquiries that you do not recognize. Look for inaccurate information, such as home address or Social Security number. If you see anything you do not understand or that looks incorrect, call the credit reporting agency at the telephone number on the report.

We recommend you vigilantly review your account statements and credit reports and promptly report any suspicious activity or suspected identity theft to law enforcement authorities, including local law enforcement, your state's attorney general and/or the Federal Trade Commission (FTC). You may contact the FTC or your state's regulatory authority to obtain information about avoiding identity theft. Contact the FTC at Federal Trade Commission, Consumer Response Center, 600 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20580, 1-877-IDTHEFT (438-4338), www.ftc.gov/idtheft.

For North Carolina residents: You may obtain information about preventing and avoiding identity theft from the North Carolina Attorney General's Office: North Carolina Attorney General's Office, Consumer Protection Division, 9001 Mail Service Center, Raleigh, NC 27699, 1-877-5-NO-SCAM (66-7226), <https://ncdoj.gov>.

Fraud Alerts: You can place two types of fraud alerts on your credit report to notify creditors: an initial alert and an extended alert. You may place an initial fraud alert on your credit report if you suspect you have been, or are about to be, a victim of identity theft. An initial fraud alert lasts for one year. You may place an extended alert on your credit report by mail if you have been a victim of identity theft with the appropriate documentary proof. An extended fraud alert lasts for seven years. You can place a fraud alert on your credit report by calling the toll-free fraud number or visiting the website of any of the three national credit reporting agencies listed below. You only need to notify one agency, because it must notify the other two agencies.

Equifax: 1-866-349-5191, www.equifax.com/personal/education/identity-theft/fraud-alert-security-freeze-credit-lock/

Experian: 1-888-397-3742, <https://www.experian.com/fraud/center.html>

TransUnion: 1-800-680-7289, <https://www.transunion.com/fraud-alerts>

Credit Freezes: You may put a credit freeze, also known as a security freeze, on your credit file so that no new credit can be opened in your name without the use of a PIN number and/or password that may be issued to you when you initiate a freeze. A credit freeze is designed to prevent potential credit grantors from accessing your credit report without your consent. If you place a credit freeze, potential creditors and other third parties will not be able to access your credit report unless you lift the freeze. Therefore, using a credit freeze may delay your ability to obtain credit. There is no fee to place, lift and/or remove a credit freeze. Unlike a fraud alert, you must separately place a credit freeze on your credit file at each credit reporting agency. Contact the three major credit reporting agencies to place a credit freeze and learn more information:
