FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SCDCA RETURNS TO PACOLET ON JULY 1, 2009

Columbia, SC – The South Carolina Department of Consumer Affairs (SCDCA) will visit the Pacolet community on Wednesday, July 1, 2009, to handle consumer complaints and questions. Regional SCDCA outreach coordinator Patty Guthrie will pay a visit to the Pacolet branch of the Spartanburg County Public Library. Consumers may come with questions or complaints regarding a business between 1:00 pm and 3:00 p.m. Individuals should bring copies of any documentation they have regarding a complaint.

Ms. Guthrie will have additional tips and materials available on current scams and other consumer issues. Difficult times in the economy are creating lots of opportunities for con artists anxious to separate you from your money. Don't be a victim! Learn how to protect yourself.

The Department will continue to visit the Pacolet community on a regular basis. Locations will be announced monthly. The Department serves the entire state via telephone and online help. Specific questions and concerns from the Pacolet community may be addressed to Patty Guthrie. Appointments are available upon request. Ms. Guthrie may be reached at 864.490.3267.

This month's visit has been made possible through a collaborative effort with the Pacolet Library and librarian Chris Rogers.
