FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Consumer Protection Webinars Offered

Columbia, SC – The South Carolina Department of Consumer Affairs and the South Carolina Department of Revenue, have partnered with the State Library to offer educational webinars designed to inform the public on how to enroll in credit monitoring and learn more about how to minimize the effects of a security breach.

The following dates and times have been provided to libraries. Consumers should contact their local library to see if they will offer the webinar:

- Tuesday, November 13th from 2:00-2:30 p.m.
- Wednesday, November 14th from 10:00-10:30 a.m.
- Thursday, November 15th from 6:30-7:00 p.m.
- Friday, November 16th from 10:00-10:30 a.m.
- Saturday, November 17th from 11-11:30 a.m.

Libraries may register for these sessions by visiting the South Carolina State Library's online event calendar at www.statelibrary.sc.gov.

SCDCA aims to protect consumers from inequities in the marketplace through advocacy, complaint mediation, enforcement and education. To file a complaint or get information on consumer issues, visit www.consumer.sc.gov or call toll-free, 1.800.922.1594.

About the S.C. State Library

The South Carolina State Library is the primary administrator of federal and state support for the state's libraries. The Library is a national model for innovation, collaboration, leadership and effectiveness. The Library's mission is to optimize South Carolina's investment in library and information services. In 1969, as the result of action by the General Assembly, the State Library Board was redesignated as the South Carolina State Library and assumed responsibility for public library development, library service for state institutions, service for the blind and physically handicapped, and library service to state government agencies. Headquartered in Columbia, S.C., the Library is funded by the state of South Carolina, by the federal government through the Institute of Museum and Library Services, and other sources. For more information, visit www.statelibrary.sc.gov or call 803-734-8666.

About the SCDOR
