* Officially, it will be the responsibility of the veteran to furnish evidence showing Vets Ride with Pride eligibility; however, the CVSO will do what it can to assist with proving program eligibility. Eligible veterans can present their VA Veterans Identification Card (VIC) at the CVSO office showing service-connection or other proof showing they are in receipt of compensation or pension. Items may include bank statements showing direct deposit from the VA, VA award letters, letters from eBenefits, as well as other VA documentation. In many, but not all cases, we will have the necessary proof required at our office to prove veterans eligibility for Vets Ride with Pride.
