WHEREAS, the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania has delegated to the President Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of each Judicial District in the general supervision and administrative control of Magisterial District Judges within his Judicial District as set forth in Rule 17 of the Rules Governing Standards of Conduct of Magisterial District Judges; and,

WHEREAS, Rule 112 of the Rules and Standards with respect to the offices of Magisterial District Judges provides that the President Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of a Judicial District may assign temporarily the Magisterial District Judge of any Magisterial District to any other Magisterial District whenever such an assignment is required for the efficient administration of justice; and,

WHEREAS, Rules 21, 22, 23, 24 and 25 of the Rules of Criminal Procedure provide for the venue, location of proceedings before issuing authority, availability, temporary assignment and powers of the issuing authority the assignment and changes of venue of the issuing authority by the President Judge of the Judicial District;

NOW THEREFORE, this 4TH day of December 2012, it is hereby ORDERED and DECREED, that Charles E. McDonald, Esquire, Administrator for Magisterial District Judges, is hereby delegated the authority to hold hearings and receive testimony on changes of venue, location and the assignment of Magisterial District Judges for and/or on behalf of the President Judge of the

OFFICE OF JUDICIAL ADMINISTRATION
MICHIGAN JUDICIAL BRANCH

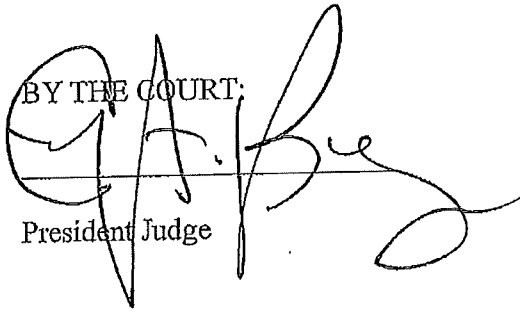

Thirty-Second Judicial District to ensure fair and impartial proceeding as well as the efficient administration of justice in accordance with the following procedures;

1. In all cases in which the Magisterial District Judge shall recuse him or herself for whatever reason, the Administrator shall, in writing, make a recommendation to the President Judge to whom the case shall be assigned. Upon the execution of an Order by the President Judge transferring the case, the Administrator shall notify the Magisterial District Judge recusing him or herself advising to whom the case has been assigned. It shall be the responsibility of the Magisterial District Judge recusing him or herself to notify all parties of the change in assignment and to transfer the case to the Magisterial District Judge who has been assigned to hear the matter.
2. In all other cases in which one or more parties request a change of venue on the grounds of bias, conflict of interest, inconvenience, or for any other reason whatsoever, the Administrator shall:
 - A. Require the party requesting a change of venue to submit a petition, in writing, on a form which shall be prescribed by the Administrator.
 - B. The petition shall be signed by the party or parties and be verified.
 - C. Upon the filing of the petition with the administrator, all proceedings shall be stayed pending a decision on the request for a change of venue.
 - D. Unless waived by the parties, the Administrator shall hold a hearing within forty-five (45) days from the date the petition is filed with the Administrator, and said hearing shall be at a location set by the Administrator.
 - E. All parties in the matter shall be notified in writing by regular mail, at least five (5) days prior to the hearing, setting forth the date, time and place of the hearing.

- F. Whenever a party fails to appear for the hearing and the request for change of venue, he or she shall be deemed to have consented to the hearing in his or her absence.
- G. The Administrator shall take testimony and make a recommendation to the President Judge regarding the change of venue.
- H. Upon the execution of an order regarding the change of venue by the President Judge, a copy of the order shall be mailed, by regular mail to all parties.
- I. In all cases, where a change of venue has been granted, a new Magisterial District Judge has been assigned, it shall be the responsibility of the Magisterial District Judge, wherein the case was filed, to notify all parties of the change in assignment and to transfer the case to the Magisterial District Judge who has been assigned the matter by the President Judge.
