Proof of Vermont Residence

To prove Vermont residency, applicants must provide the Department with two pieces of mail with their current name and street address (including city/town). These are not considered identity documents, they are only used to prove residency.

If you reside with others and get no mail at the street address, submit a signed statement (or Vermont Residency Certification form # VL-002) from the person with whom you reside and one proof of residency document from that person (see #4 on first page of instruction).

Proof of U.S. Citizenship

- Valid U.S. Passport
- Original or certified copy of U.S. Birth Certificate*
- Certificate of Naturalization
- Certificate of Citizenship
- U.S. Department of State Consular Report of Birth Abroad

Proof of Identity & Date of Birth

Each applicant for a learner's permit, operator's license or non-driver ID is required to show documentary proof of identity and date and place of birth. Proof of identity shall be one primary document and one secondary document. A primary document must contain the full name and date of birth and must be verifiable, i.e., we must be able to contact the issuing agency to determine the authenticity of the document.

Temporary or altered documents are not acceptable. When necessary, we may ask you to provide additional evidence to establish your identity.

Name Changes (marriage, divorce, adoption, etc) - If your current license has a different name than your identity documents, you must have evidence of legal name change. All documents must show the same name and/or date of birth, or an association between the information on the documents. Additional documentation is required if a connection between documents cannot be established (e.g. Marriage Certificate, Court Order of name change, Divorce Decree, etc.).

VT DMV ID requirements for minor children (applying for an EDL/ID) -
