

STATE OF ALASKA
DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS

Privileged Organizations Designation List

The following organizations have been deemed to be privileged by the DOC Commissioner for the purposes of telephone calls and, as such, calls made to these organizations by prisoners may not be monitored or recorded, unless specifically authorized by the Commissioner:

- The Alaska State Commission for Human Rights.
- State of Alaska Legislators.
- Any court in the United States.
- The Attorney General of Alaska.
- The Chairman, Alaska Board of Parole.
- The Commissioner, Department of Corrections.
- The Division of Corporations, Business and Professional Licensing, Department of Commerce, Community and Economic Development.
- The Grievance and Facility Standards Administrator, Department of Corrections.
- The Governor, State of Alaska.
- The Alaska Congressional Delegation.
- The Physician of Record for the Prisoner.
- The State of Alaska Americans with Disabilities Act Coordinator. (Department of Administration, ADA Compliance Program)
- The prisoner's foreign consulate. (If applicable)
- The Alaska Office of Victims' Rights. (When the prisoner also qualifies as a "victim" under AS 12.55.185)
- Any organization, such as the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU), National Prison Law Project, or Alaska Legal Services Corporation, that assists persons in the exercise of their legal rights.