

For the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland: Mr. T.M. SNOW
Pour le Royaume-Uni de Grande-Bretagne et d'Irlande du Nord:

For the United States of America: Mr. Winthrop G. BROWN
Pour les Etats-Unis d'Amérique:

6. The Chairman, M. Suetens, then announced that the Protocol of Provisional Application was open for signature, and the following representatives signed in alphabetical order:

Belgium
Canada
Luxembourg
Netherlands
United Kingdom
United States

Note to Press representatives: The countries named in the Protocol are: Australia, Belgium, Luxembourg, Canada, France, Netherlands, United Kingdom and United States. The release of the General Agreement together with the schedules on November 18 by the Secretary General depends on his having received signatures to the Protocol of all the above named countries by November 15. The signatures of Australia and France must therefore be received within the next 15 days.

7. Exchange of Notes. Notes, or instruments, were exchanged between the following countries and were signed in duplicate by their representatives. These Notes are concerned with the relationship between existing trade agreements and the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade.

Czechoslovakia - Australia
United States - United Kingdom
Canada
France
Cuba
Brazil
Belgium
Netherlands

8. Chairman's closing remarks. The Chairman read the text of a telegram received today from the Secretary General of the United Nations: "I am heartened to learn of successful conclusion of tariff negotiations begun under auspices Preparatory Committee in April. Successful conclusion of these negotiations is encouraging evidence of intention of United Nations to take common action to press on with the economic organisation of peace with a view to attaining the higher standards of living and economic progress envisaged in Article 55A of the UN Charter. Stop. Your agreement in Geneva is also a happy augury for successful outcome to the UN Conference on trade and employment which is to open in Havana next month."

The Chairman made the following announcement of invitations issued to attend the Havana Conference.

Acceptances received up to October 24: Australia, Brazil, Canada, China, Colombia, Costa Rica, Denmark, Haiti, Liberia, Luxembourg, Netherlands, New Zealand, Norway, Philippines, Turkey, United Kingdom, United States, Uruguay, Afghanistan, Sweden, Pakistan, Portugal, Switzerland, Trans-Jordan through Iraq, Indonesia, Burma, Ceylon, Southern Rhodesia.

Refusals received up to October 24: Byelo-Russia, Ethiopia, Saudi Arabia, Ukraine, USSR, Yugoslavia, Siam, Bulgaria.

The proceedings then terminated and the Second Session of the Preparatory Committee was concluded.
