

Palmer State Office Building
Access Card Holder and Parking Agreement - State Employee

This agreement states the terms and conditions under which you will receive an access card that will allow you to access the various areas within the Palmer State Office Building. Failure to follow the requirements listed below may result in the revocation of your Access Card privileges.

AGREEMENT

1. I will protect the access card from loss or damage. I will immediately report a lost access card to my agency rep/supervisor and Building Management (907-707-1701) so that the card may be deactivated. I understand that failure to report a lost access card may result in revocation of privileges. I will wait the required 3 day waiting period after losing a card to go to the Building Management office and request a new one.
2. If I leave my card at home, I will request entry through my supervisor or office administrator. Building Management Office will not be able to grant temporary access or access cards.
3. I will always use the access card to enter and exit when a card reader is present and door is in a locked mode.
4. I will not transfer or loan my access card to anyone.
5. I will return the access card and issued hang tag to my supervisor or to Building Management if I no longer work in the Palmer State Office Building.
6. I understand that parking my vehicle in an authorized State of Alaska parking area is a privilege of being an employee of the State of Alaska and working in the Palmer State Office Building.
7. I will always display my vehicle hangtag clearly and without obstruction from the rearview mirror in the vehicle I have driven that day.
8. I will NOT park my vehicle in any reserved parking spaces. These spaces have signs that say reserved.
9. I will NOT park my vehicle in the Palmer State Office Building parking lot overnight without consent from building management.
10. I understand the privilege of parking in the parking lot is for State of Alaska business at the Palmer State Office Building, and if I abuse this privilege, I am subject to punishment as outlined in The State of Alaska, Palmer State Office Building Employee Parking Rules and Policies.
11. I understand the rules and policies outlined in The State of Alaska, Palmer State Office Building Employee Parking Rules and Policies that can result in my vehicle being ticketed, my loss of parking privileges, or my vehicle being towed.
12. SOA owned and operated vehicles are permitted to park at the Palmer State Office Building. Secure Badge and Building Management must have Model, License Plate, Year, and Color on file.

I have reviewed the terms and conditions set forth above and understand that failure to comply with these terms may result in the loss of my access card and parking privileges, additionally further action may be taken. I acknowledge that I have received a copy of the The State of Alaska, Palmer State Office Building Employee Parking Rules and Policies. I understand that the parking areas are under camera surveillance.
