Miscellaneous Information

On November 4, 2021 the Office of Enforcement Counsel sent a Warning Letter to Taylor regarding his harassment and threatening language towards PGCB staff and iGaming Operator personnel. On multiple dates in 2021, Taylor filed numerous complaints with the PGCB claiming that iGaming Operators were cheating him out of money and that games were rigged. During communication with iGaming Customer Service and PGCB staff, Taylor repeatedly and aggressively harassed employees along with using threatening language. On June 21, 2022 Taylor was informed his complaints were reviewed and no issues were observed or been reported from the operator or game provider. On the same day, Taylor sent two responses using aggressive, vulgar and accusatory language. On July 25th, 2022 Taylor was charged with Harassment and he plead guilty.
