Miscellaneous Information

In August 2021, Biddle had attempted to withdraw winnings from an iGaming platform licensed in PA. Biddle indicated that an unknown third party made unauthorized charges from her bank account, resulting in an overdraft. She requested a refund in the amount of the overdraft. On September 18, 2021, the operator informed Biddle that they had completed an investigation and that there were no signs of a breach of security on their end. Biddle then threatened the operator with a police report that appeared to be fraudulent for several reasons, including formatting issues such as a non-centered header, spelling errors, no officer name, no case number, and no badge number next to the electronic signature. On October 19, 2021, Biddle was charged with two counts of forgery.
