

Guidelines for Book Donations:

The Department of Linguistics selectively accepts books and resource donations from current and emeriti faculty members. Donations that have the potential to enhance and expand our collection of reserves in the Linguistics Language Lab will be carefully reviewed. Please reach out to the Linguistics Language Lab and Media Center Coordinator, Rula Kassicieh (rkassicieh@ucsd.edu) if you would like to initiate or inquire about this process.

The donor(s) must provide a listing of items to be donated, including Book title, date published, and ISBN to the Linguistics Language Lab and Media Center Coordinator.

Once accepted, the donated materials become the property of the Linguistics Department and items that cannot be added to the collection will be sent to UC San Diego Surplus Sales.

The Linguistics Department does NOT give appraisals or valuation of the value of the donation. Donors are encouraged to consult with a tax expert regarding current requirements. A receipt of the gift will be acknowledged in writing upon request.

The Linguistics Department reserves the right to decline any donation offer.