SECTION XIV. REQUIRED AND PROHIBITED INFORMATION

A. Required Information. The following information shall be made available to the public on the sex offender registry website:

Sex Offender Registration and Notification

1. Notice that an offender is in violation of their registration requirements or cannot be located if the sex offender has absconded.
2. All sex offenses for which the sex offender has been convicted.
3. The sex offense(s) for which the offender is currently registered.
4. The address of the sex offender's employer(s).
5. The name of the sex offender including all aliases.
6. A current photograph of the sex offender.
7. A physical description of the sex offender.
8. The residential address and, if relevant, a description of a habitual residence of the sex offender.
9. All addresses of schools attended by the sex offender.
10. The sex offender's vehicle license plate number along with a description of the vehicle.

B. Prohibited Information. The following information shall not be available to the public on the sex offender registry website:

1. Any arrest that did not result in conviction.
2. The sex offender's social security number.
3. Any travel and immigration documents.
4. The identity of the victim.

5. Internet identifiers.

C. Witness Protection. For sex offenders who are under a witness protection program, the Tribal police may honor the request of the United States Marshal Service or other agency responsible for witness protection by not including the original identity of the offender on the publicly accessible sex offender registry website.

SECTION XV. FAILURE TO APPEAR FOR REGISTRATION AND ABSCONDING

A. Failure to Appear. In the event a sex offender fails to register with the tribe as required by this Statute, the Department shall immediately inform the jurisdiction that provided notification that the sex offender was to commence residency, employment, or school attendance with the tribe that the sex offender failed to appear for registration.

B. Absconded Sex Offenders. If the Department receives information that a sex offender has absconded the Department shall make an effort to determine if the sex offender has actually absconded.

1. In the event no determination can be made, the Department shall ensure any other appropriate law enforcement agency is notified.

2. If the information indicating the possible absconding came through notice from another jurisdiction or federal authorities, the Department shall be informed that the sex offender has failed to appear and register.

3. If an absconded sex offender cannot be located then the Department shall take the following actions:

a. Update the registry to reflect the sex offender has absconded or is otherwise not capable of being located.

b. Seek a Show Cause and Warrant for the sex offender's arrest.

- c. Notify the U.S. Marshals Service.
- d. Update NCIC/NSOR to reflect the sex offender's status as an absconder, or is otherwise not capable of being located.

C. Failure to Register. In the event a sex offender who is required to register due to their residency, employment or school attendance status fails to do so or otherwise violate a registration requirement of this Statute, the Department shall take all appropriate follow-up measures to determine if the sex offender is actually residing, employed or attending school within the Tribe's jurisdiction.

SECTION XVI. VIOLATIONS AND PENALTIES

- A. No person, required to register as a sex offender, shall knowingly fail to register as a sex offender with the Department.
- B. No person, required to register as a sex offender, shall knowingly fail to update their information as a sex offender with the Department as required by this Statute.
- C. No person, required to register as a sex offender, shall knowingly fail to notify the Department of any changes of jurisdiction or the leaving of the Tribal jurisdiction.
- D. No person shall knowingly furnish, or cause to be furnished, any false or misleading information to be included on the Sex Offender Registry.
- E. No person shall, without prior approval of the Department, remove, alter, mutilate or destroy any notice to the Tribal community or Sex Offender Registry information.
- F. A person found in violation of this Statute will be issued a civil infraction ticket to appear before the Tribal Court.
- G. The Tribal Court may assess such fine and cost and other remedies as deemed appropriate, not to exceed five-thousand dollars ($5,000).

H. If a sex offender fails to register after receiving adequate notice, the Tribal Court may issue a Civil Bench Warrant for the personal appearance before the Court and may detain the person until any fines, costs or other remedies are satisfied.

I. The Tribal Court may determine if a parent or legal guardian of a sex offender that is a minor child shall be responsible for any fines, costs or other remedies.

SECTION XVII. SAVINGS CLAUSE

In the event that any section, subsection or phrase of this Statute is found by a court of competent jurisdiction to violate the Constitution or laws of the Little Traverse Bay Bands of Odawa Indians, such part shall be considered to stand alone and to be deleted from this Statute, the entirety of the balance of the Statute to remain in full and binding force and effect so long as the overall intent of the Statute remains intact.

SECTION XVIII. EFFECTIVE DATE

Effective upon signature of the Executive or 30 days from Tribal Council approval which ever comes first or if the Executive vetoes the Statute, then upon Tribal Council override of the veto.

SECTION XIX. IMPLEMENTATION

This Statute shall be implemented within 180 days from the Effective Date of this Statute.
