United Nations peacekeeping operations: SG to provide an independent strategic review of United Nations peacekeeping operations' responses to improvised explosive devices
S/PRST/2021/11 of 24 May 2021

Eighth para.: The Security Council underscores the importance it places on the safety and security of peacekeepers on the ground and the need for troop-and police- contributing countries to, ensure where appropriate, that all peacekeepers in the field are equipped, informed and trained to mitigate the threat posed by landmines, explosive remnants of war and improvised explosive devices. The Council requests the Secretary-General to provide the Security Council, no later than 15 December 2021, with an independent strategic review of United Nations peacekeeping operations' responses to improvised explosive devices, assessing capabilities and measures necessary to better mitigate this threat.

The report of the Secretary-General is expected to be issued in December 2021.
