An American Legion Family message

On Monday, the senators learned about the American Legion Family from two special guests, American Legion Auxiliary National President Lisa Williamson and The American Legion National Commander Daniel Seehafer.

National President Williamson, who is also spending the week at ALA Girls Nation, talked about the origin and eligibility of the ALA. She also talked about her focus on the Be the One initiative to destigmatize getting help when it comes to thoughts of suicide.

Commander Seehafer also spoke to the senators about the American Legion's Be the One mission and how one person can make a difference.
