

Digital Resources for Integrating Latinx History into United States History

Compiled by Hank Bitten

Copyright January 2021

The digital resources below are designed to enhance the interdisciplinary study of Latinx Americans in U.S. History and World History. This is not a curriculum or lesson plan but a directory of resources to be integrated into the Performance Expectations in the social studies curriculum of New Jersey high schools. Although this is a comprehensive list of resources it is continually updated. The intended audience is for teachers to use in the design of inquiry based lessons.
