About UC San Diego Park & Market

UC San Diego Park & Market is a one-of-a-kind social and intellectual hub, purpose-built to spark connections and make education accessible to all. The four-story iconic glass building opened in downtown San Diego in May 2022, and was designed to engage the community through an intentional mix of public, business, arts and educational spaces for civic engagement, learning and collaboration.

A 66,000-square-foot facility strategically located on a full city block in the East Village neighborhood of downtown San Diego, Park & Market creates an intersection of people, ideas, science, art and innovation – learning from and connecting with the cultural heritage and shared values of our unique, binational region.

UC San Diego convenes an unprecedented array of talent and resources from around the world at Park & Market, allowing individuals and organizations to build relationships and create opportunities to improve our community – economically, culturally, socially and for the greater civic good.

Spark your next great idea at Park & Market. Join us for a variety of events from lively readings to art exhibits or engaging scholarly talks.

COLLABORATIONS & SUPPORT:

Collaborate with Park & Market. Partner with experts, entrepreneurs, advocates, and innovators to help promote the region's growth, equity, and prosperity. Work with us to dream, plan, and build a future for our bi-national region.

Events, entertainment and educational offerings curated by UC San Diego and community experts – designed to intrigue, engage and inspire.

The building is located at the intersection of Park Blvd. and Market Street in the East Village neighborhood of downtown San Diego.

Park & Market's space configurations and sophisticated audiovisual capabilities make the building an ideal venue for a range of events – from performances to parties, lectures, meetings, classes and much more – for groups from 10-1,000

Park & Market is accessibly located along the UC San Diego Blue Line, which starts at the Tijuana border and continues on to the UC San Diego campus in La Jolla.

The first floor is home to the Guggenheim Theatre, with seating for 220 and cutting-edge lighting and audiovisual systems. The 5,900 square-foot Forum Lobby offers a dramatic backdrop for events with floor-to-ceiling 26-foot windows and a doublesided 17x20 foot state of the art video screen.

Park & Market is home to more unique features, including the 58-seat art house cinema Digital Gym, Senses Bistro and an exhibition gallery that opens into an outdoor terrace and a tiered amphitheater ideal for outdoor performances and events.

Park & Market brings together vital community organizations – like Burnham Center, EDC, Media Arts Center San Diego, Senses Bistro, Black Chamber of Commerce, and NCRC, to name a few – under one roof.
