Subject: RE: Proposed Mediators

In order to make progress, the Mitte Foundation should respond to the offer we presented, and copied the OAG, to which we received no response. I continue to be concerned about their authenticity and desire to settle the matter. Ray Chester's motivation is to continue to pillage the Foundation to line his own pockets, which he only does by continued litigation and collusion with Greg Milligan.

We have shown our good faith, it's time for them to do the same. Waiting until mediation only adds more delay from the Mitte Foundation.

We ran conflicts and checked availability for at least six proposed mediators and as of now, Judge Schless is the only candidate that both cleared conflicts and has immediate availability as follows: July 1,2,3,6,7, and 8.

Per our email on Friday, we would prefer to have the mediation this week.

Thank you,
Maryann Norwood
