CLERK OF THE COURT

THE COURT HEREBY ORDERS each person appearing as a witness in the trial of impeachment to appear outside the front door of the Senate Chamber on September 5, 2023, at 11:00 a.m.

A subpoena recipient may disregard the 9 a.m. time designation on a subpoena for appearance previously issued by the Court for September 5th.

However, if a witness is informed by the party who requested the witness's appearance of a time and date other than September 5th at 11 a.m., the witness shall appear at the time and date specified.

The Court further orders counsel for each party to notify the party's witnesses of this order, and that each witness has been placed under "The Rule."

Failure of a witness to appear on September 5, 2023, at 11:00 a.m. or at the time and date specified by the party who requested the witness's appearance, may result in contempt of court.

Signed this 31st day of August, 2023.
