(Instructions and Forms)

Applications to Destroy Juvenile Records, Set Aside Juvenile Adjudications, or Restore Firearm Rights

Checklist

You may use the forms and instructions in this packet if....

- ✓ You are at least 18 years of age, and no longer under the jurisdiction of Juvenile Court or the Department of Juvenile Corrections, AND
  - You want to apply to the court to destroy your juvenile records, and/or
  - You want to apply to the court to set aside your juvenile adjudication(s), and/or
  - You want to apply to the court to restore your firearm rights, AND
- ✓ You had a juvenile delinquency case (that may or may not have resulted in an adjudication) in the Superior Court of Arizona in Maricopa County, AND
- ✓ You currently do not have any criminal charges pending against you in an adult court.

Note: This packet contains three (3) different applications for you to ask the court to grant you one, two, or three different results. Depending on your situation and preference, you may use one, two, or three of the applications to address your concerns to the court. See the “Table of Contents” on the next page for the titles of the 3 different applications in this packet.

Do not use the forms and instructions in this packet if. . .

- ✗ You participated in a Juvenile Probation Department diversion program.
  - If you successfully completed diversion, you do not need to apply for Destruction of Juvenile Records, Set Aside Conviction, or Restore Firearm Rights because your records will be automatically destroyed by the Juvenile Probation Department when you reach 18 years and 90 days per A.R.S. § 8-349(M).
  - If you did NOT successfully complete diversion, please contact the Juvenile Probation Department at (602) 506-4011 for information on how to destroy your diversion records.

Read me: Consulting a lawyer before filing documents with the court may help prevent unexpected results. A list of Lawyers you may hire to advise you on handling your own case or to perform specific tasks can be found on the Law Library Resource Center website.

Eligibility at age 25: If you were not eligible between ages 18 and 24 under A.R.S. § 8-349(A), you may be eligible at age 25 under A.R.S. § 8-349(E). You are eligible to have your Juvenile Court and Department of Juvenile Corrections delinquency records destroyed under A.R.S. § 8-349(E) if:

- You are at least 25 years of age.
- A criminal charge is not pending against you in an adult court.
- You have not been convicted of a felony offense in an adult court.
- You are not required to register pursuant to A.R.S. § 13-3821 (see offenses listed in Figure 2).
- All victim restitution has been paid in full.
- All court-ordered fines have been paid in full. If not, you may request a modification.

In your Application, you must state that all the above are true.

Important Advisement: Destroying your records means that your entire file will be destroyed including the court's destruction order. After destruction, the court will no longer have any information regarding your juvenile case. You should keep the court's order destroying your record as you may need this order in the future for job applications, security clearances, entry into the military, further education, occupational licensing, or other reasons.

2. Set Aside Adjudications - Legal Requirements (A.R.S. § 8-348)

If you are at least 18 years of age, and no longer under the jurisdiction of Juvenile Court or the Department of Juvenile Corrections, have been adjudicated delinquent or incorrigible, and have fulfilled the conditions of probation or received a discharge from the Department of Juvenile Corrections under A.R.S. § 41-2820, you may apply to set aside the adjudication.

The court cannot grant the application to set aside the adjudication if you were adjudicated delinquent for any of the following offenses:

- A dangerous offense as defined in A.R.S. § 13-105 means “an offense involving the discharge, use or threatening exhibition of a deadly weapon or dangerous instrument or the intentional or knowing infliction of serious physical injury on another person.”
- An offense for which there has been a finding of sexual motivation pursuant to A.R.S. § 13-118.
- An offense in violation of title 13, chapter 14 (sexual offenses).
- An offense in violation of A.R.S. §§ 28-1381, 28-1382, or 28-1383 if the offense can be alleged as a prior violation pursuant to title 28, chapter 4 (DUI).

In the Application, you must state:

- You are at least 18 years of age and no longer under the jurisdiction of Juvenile Court or the Department of Juvenile Corrections.

- You have completed the conditions of your court-ordered probation or received a discharge from the Department of Juvenile Corrections upon successful completion of the individual treatment plan under A.R.S. § 41-2820(B).
- You were not adjudicated for an offense listed above.
- Whether you have been convicted of a felony offense in an adult court.
- Whether you have a criminal charge pending in an adult court.
- All victim restitution has been paid in full.
- All monetary obligations have been paid in full or good cause exists for modification of any unpaid monetary obligations. In this application you may request the court modify the monetary obligations.

3. Restoration of Right to Possess a Firearm - Legal Requirements (A.R.S. § 8-249)

If you have been adjudicated for a felony offense or an offense that remains undesignated as a class 6 open-ended offense, you have lost your right to possess a firearm. You must apply with the court to have that legal right returned to you, even after you turn 18 years of age.

If your undesignated offense has been designated a misdemeanor, your right to possess a firearm is automatically restored at age 18.

You may apply for restoration of your right to possess a firearm as set forth below. In the Application, you must state that one of the following is true:

- a. You were adjudicated delinquent for a dangerous offense under A.R.S. § 13-704, a serious offense as defined in A.R.S. § 13-706, burglary in the first degree, burglary in the second degree, or arson, and you are at least 30 years of age.

A dangerous offense under A.R.S. § 13-704 means “an offense involving the discharge, use or threatening exhibition of a deadly weapon or dangerous instrument or the intentional or knowing infliction of serious physical injury on another person” (see A.R.S. § 13-105(13)).

- Serious offense under A.R.S. § 13-706 includes: first degree murder; second degree murder; manslaughter; aggravated assault resulting in serious physical injury or involving the discharge, use, or threatening exhibition of a deadly weapon or dangerous instrument, sexual assault, any dangerous crime against children; arson of an occupied structure; armed robbery; burglary in the first degree; kidnapping; or sexual conduct with a minor under 15 years of age; and child sex trafficking.

OR

- c. You were adjudicated delinquent for any other felony offense, and it has been two years since you were discharged from probation.

Important Advisement: Even if you are granted the right to possess a firearm by the Juvenile Court in this case, you may still be prohibited from possessing a firearm under other state and federal laws.

Destruction of Juvenile Records Instructions: How to complete the Application form

1. Determine if you meet the requirements for the request you are making. (See Legal Requirements document.)
2. Complete the Application form with black ink, typed or printed.
3. Sign the Application.
4. You must file the original and one (1) copy of the Application with the Clerk of Superior Court. The Clerk will not charge a fee.
5. The Clerk of Superior Court will transmit notice of the Application to the County Attorney. The County Attorney may file a response to the Application regarding your juvenile records.
6. The Clerk of Superior Court will return one copy of the Application for your records.

If you have a Juvenile Court case in more than one county, you must file a separate Application with the Clerk of Superior Court in each county in which you had a case.

You may obtain your case number from the Clerk of Superior Court in the county in which you were adjudicated. You can get a copy of your public record from the Juvenile Probation Department.

Heading: At the top of the form, please fill in your name; mailing address (if address is not protected), city, state, zip code, telephone number and email address. If you are an attorney filing on behalf of the applicant fill in your State Bar Number.
