

2010 Treaty Event Towards Universal Participation and Implementation

Fact Sheet #2

Past Treaty Events

The Treaty Event was initiated as a side activity of the Millennium Summit in 2000. Each year, a focus is selected, highlighting a group of treaties, as a way to encourage Member States to sign, ratify or otherwise support these treaties. In 2001, an additional treaty event was held in the wake of 11 September to highlight terrorism-related treaties.

The following is a list of past treaty events and the number of actions taken by Member States:

- 2000 The Millennium Summit Treaty Event
274 treaty actions by 84 States
- 2001 Focus – Rights of Women and Children
135 treaty actions by 61 States
- Treaty Event – Terrorism-related Treaties
180 treaty actions by 79 States
- 2002 Focus – Sustainable Development
84 treaty actions by 41 States
- 2003 Focus – Treaties against Transnational Organized Crime and Terrorism
155 treaty actions by 56 States
- 2004 Focus – Treaties on the Protection of Civilians
102 treaty actions by 35 States
- 2005 Focus – Responding to Global Challenges 265 treaty actions by 99 States and the European Community
- 2006 Focus – Crossing Borders
86 treaty actions by 46 States
- 2007 Focus – Towards Universal Participation and Implementation –
A Comprehensive Legal Framework for Peace, Development and Human Rights
81 treaty actions by 48 States
- 2008 Focus – Universal Participation and Implementation – Dignity and Justice for All of Us
84 treaty actions by 44 States
- 2009 Towards Universal Participation and Implementation
103 treaty actions by 64 States

Note: Treaty actions include, for example, signatures, ratifications, approvals, acceptances, accessions and consents to be bound. There have been a total of eleven treaty events before the 2010 event during which a total of 1,549 treaty actions have taken place.

United Nations