

Victims' families cope with memories

By JON JAMES
The other victims of a killer's senseless crime — the family and friends of Margaret M. Gill and Jeanne Marie Rensselear — are still coping in Merrillville...

She said Gilbert, who had a full-time job with Carter Oil Co. in Indianapolis in addition to her part-time motel job, was taking business courses at St. Joseph's College in Remselser...

After getting a degree from Saylor State University in Merrillville, Gill started at the motel almost two years ago as a maid, and was promoted to night supervisor. Her parents said she liked her job.

Slayings

er forced Gil at gunpoint from the lobby to the hallway — the area of the motel farthest from the office — where she is believed to have been raped before being shot twice in the chest...

Officials think the assailant entered east on Ind. 18, which runs between cornerfields and Remselser, turning north on County Road 150W, the killer passed a cluster of red signs and dumped his naked victim in a front yard...

She had been shot two other times, behind her left ear and the right shoulder blade area. There were no exit wounds. The uniform she wore at the time of her death has not been found.
