

Undergraduate Scholarship for Academic Internship Program Participants
Application Instructions
Deadline: Rolling

Description: The Institute of Arts and Humanities (IAH) will offer scholarships to support undergraduate students participating in an academic internship.

Eligibility: Undergraduate students with a declared major or minor in Arts & Humanities who have secured an academic internship through the UCSD Academic Internship Program (AIP), UC Washington Center (UCDC) or UC Center Sacramento programs, and the internship offers compensation less than $12.50 per hour. Note: AIP has a minimum eligibility requirement of 90 units completed and a 2.5 UC GPA to access its internship portal.

Award: Up to $1,250

Process: After students secure an Academic Internship, please submit an application with:

1. Name
2. Major/Minor
3. Organization name
4. Copy of signed AIP Learning Agreement
5. Description (no more than 250 words) of how this internship will enhance the student's education in one or more of the following areas:
 - a. Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion, with a particular focus on race, ethnicity, and social justice;
 - b. Global Arts and Humanities, with specific attention to linking investigation of seemingly disparate people and places across geographic, cultural, and chronological boundaries;
 - c. Public Arts and Humanities, with a special commitment to collaboration with local and regional libraries, museums, and community forums; and
 - d. Digital Arts and Humanities, with unique concentration on how new digital tools and technology can create and support new forms of research, pedagogy, and university/community interface.

Award Process: The student must notify IAH of the completion of the internship after grades have been posted. Scholarship funds will be disbursed after completion of the internship.
