The international score comparison 2024

Benchmarks with public visibility.

Overview Top Five 2024

Our public benchmarks as well as the certification benchmarks help network operators around the globe to demonstrate how well they deliver wireless connections to consumers, business users and enterprises while revealing the areas of improvement.

Using our experience in the field of network-testing of mobile networks we verify and certify the performance of mobile services.

The umlaut score and service certification is the ideal tool for the independent assessment and attestation of mobile networks and the services they offer.
