SUBJECT: Class Deviation–Definition of Contingency Operation

Effective immediately, all Department of Defense contracting officers shall comply with the attached language in lieu of the FAR 2.101 definition of “contingency operation.” This class deviation adds section 12304a to the list of sections of 10 U.S.C. cited in the definition of a contingency operation.

Section 515 of the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2012 added section 12304a to the list of sections cited in the definition of contingency operation at 10 U.S.C. 101(a)(13). Section 12304a provides for treatment of an operation as a contingency operation when the Secretary of Defense activates Reserves under the terms of 10 U.S.C. 12304a in response to a Governor’s request for Federal assistance. When informed that the Secretary of Defense has invoked such authority, contracting officers may use the emergency acquisition authorities provided in FAR subpart 18.2, DFARS subpart 218.2, and in the definition of “simplified acquisition threshold” at FAR 2.101. However, the use of these authorities is limited to acquisitions in support of specifically identified emergency areas.

This class deviation remains in effect until incorporated in the FAR or is otherwise rescinded. My point of contact is Ms. Meredith Murphy, who may be reached at 571-372-6098, or at meredith.murphy@osd.mil.

Definition of Contingency Operation

Use the definition below in lieu of the definition of “contingency operation” at FAR 2.101 when making acquisitions in support of a major disaster:

“Contingency operation” (10 U.S.C. 101(a)(13)) means a military operation that—

(1) Is designated by the Secretary of Defense as an operation in which members of the armed forces are or may become involved in military actions, operations, or hostilities against an enemy of the United States or against an opposing military force; or

(2) Results in the call or order to, or retention on, active duty of members of the uniformed services under section 688, 12301(a), 12302, 12304, [12304a,]12305, or 12406 of 10 U.S.C., Chapter 15 of 10 U.S.C., or any other provision of law during a war or during a national emergency declared by the President or Congress.
