NOTICE OF INFORMATION PRACTICES

California requires insurers to provide a Notice of Information Practices in addition to providing this privacy notice. The two notices are very similar, but in general, our information practices include the following: Aflac may obtain information about you and any other persons proposed for insurance. Some information will come from you and some may come from other sources. That information and any other subsequent information collected by Aflac may in some circumstances be disclosed to third parties without your specific consent. Information relating to HIV, AIDS, or ARC status will not be disclosed. If you wish to have a more detailed explanation of our information practices, please visit aflac.com/ca-notice-of-information-practices. You may also submit a written request to: Aflac, Attn: Policy Service, 1932 Wynnton Road, Columbus, GA 31999.

You have the right to access, correct, amend or delete the information collected about you, except information that relates to a claim, or to a civil or criminal proceeding. If you would like to exercise any of these rights, please visit aflac.com/about-aflac/privacy-notices.aspx, section California Specific Notice of Information Practices, or submit a written request to the address listed above. If you are refused coverage or if your application is postponed, you also have the right to receive the specific reason in writing. To obtain this information, please submit a written request to the address listed above.

STATE-SPECIFIC DISCLOSURES

Customer NPI will be collected, used, and stored as required by applicable federal privacy laws. If the Customer's state laws provide more protection of the Customer's NPI than federal privacy laws, Aflac will protect the Customer's NPI as required by such state law.
