BE-37 Filing Requirements:

A response is required if you are notified by BEA about this survey. A BE-37 survey must be completed in its entirety by U.S. airline operators engaged in the international transportation of passengers, or of U.S. export freight, or the transportation of freight or passengers between two foreign points, if total covered revenues or total covered expenses were $500,000 or more in the previous year, or are expected to be $500,000 or more during the current year. See the General Instructions on page 8 for more information on who must report and reporting requirements.

Authority, Confidentiality, Penalties:

This survey is being conducted under the International Investment and Trade in Services Survey Act (P.L. 94-472, 90 Stat. 2059, 22 U.S.C. 3101-3108, as amended). The filing of reports is mandatory, and the Act provides that your report to BEA is confidential. Persons who fail to report may be subject to penalties. See page 8 for additional details.

Part III- U.S. Airline Operator's Revenues

9 Did the U.S. airline operator transport any passengers to and/or from the United States during the reporting period?

- ¹¹⁰¹³ 1 Yes – Follow the instructions below to complete the reporting schedule.
2 No – Skip to Question 10.

In the table below, report the total number of passengers transported to and/or from the United States during the reporting period, as well as any corresponding in-flight sales revenue. Report values based on the flight's origin from, or destination to, the specified regions outside the United States.

Allocate values among the three regions identified in column 1 of the table based on the flight's origin or destination. The three regions identified are identical with those outlined in the regional airline reporting system established in 14 CFR 241.21(g), as reported to the U.S. Department of Transportation. NOTE: per the regional airline reporting system guidelines, passengers and in-flight sales to passengers on flights originating from, or destined to Canada are treated as "domestic" and should NOT be reported in the table below.

In column 2, report the number of passengers transported to and/or from the United States based on the flight's origin from, or destination to, points outside the United States.

In column 3, report the U.S. airline operator's corresponding revenues from items purchased in-flight, such as food and beverage sales, Wi-Fi, telephone calls, etc. based on the flight's origin from, or destination to, the specified regions outside of the United States. Do not include onboard duty-free sales in in-flight sales.

IMPORTANT – Report amounts in thousands of U.S. dollars (omitting 000). Round amounts of less than $500 to 0. Do not enter amounts in the shaded portion of each item. EXAMPLE – $324,999.00 should be reported as 325. 50,000 passengers should be reported as 50.

QUARTERLY SURVEY OF U.S. AIRLINE OPERATORS'
FOREIGN REVENUES AND EXPENSES
BE-37 General Instructions

Public reporting burden for this BE-37 report is estimated to average 5 hours per response. This burden includes time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate to Director, Bureau of Economic Analysis (BE-1), 4600 Silver Hill Rd., Washington DC 20233; and to the Office of Management and Budget, Paperwork Reduction Project 0608-0011, Washington, DC 20503.

Purpose — Reports are required to obtain data for use in estimating the international transactions accounts of the United States.

Authority — This survey is being conducted under the authority of the International Investment and Trade in Services Survey Act (P.L. 94-472, 90 Stat. 2059, 22 U.S.C. 3101-3108, as amended—hereinafter “the Act”), and the filing of reports is mandatory under Section 5(b)(2) of the Act (22 U.S.C. 3104). Regulations for the survey may be found in 15 CFR Part 801.

Penalties — Whoever fails to report may be subject to a civil penalty and to injunctive relief commanding such person to comply, or both. These civil penalties are subject to inflationary adjustments. Those adjustments are found in 15 CFR 6.4. Whoever willfully fails to report shall be fined, and, if an individual, may be imprisoned for not more than one year, or both. Any officer, director, employee, or agent of any corporation who knowingly participates in such violations, upon conviction, may be punished by a like fine, imprisonment, or both. (See 22 U.S.C. 3105.) Notwithstanding the above, a U.S. person is not subject to any penalty for failure to report if a valid Office of Management and Budget (OMB) control number is not displayed on the form; such a number (0608-0011) is displayed at the top of the first page of this form.

Confidentiality — The Act provides that your report to this Bureau is CONFIDENTIAL and may be used only for analytical or statistical purposes. Without your prior written permission, the information filed in your report CANNOT be presented in a manner that allows it to be individually identified. Your report CANNOT be used for purposes of taxation, investigation, or regulation. Copies retained in your files are immune from legal process. Per the Cybersecurity Enhancement Act of 2015, your data are protected from Cybersecurity risks through security monitoring of the BEA information systems.

Who is to Report and General Coverage

Who must report — A response is required from each U.S. airline operator that was notified by BEA about the survey.

- a. A complete BE-37 report is required from each U.S. airline operator that engaged in the international transportation of passengers or of U.S. export freight, or the transportation of freight or passengers between two foreign points, and had total covered revenues OR total covered expenses that were $500,000 or more during the previous year or are expected to be $500,000 or more during the current year.

- b. A U.S. airline operator that had total covered revenues AND total covered expenses below the reporting threshold must complete pages 1-3, and is only required to report total revenues and expenses in question 8. The U.S. airline operator also has the option of providing additional information, on a voluntary basis, on pages 4-7.
- c. A U.S. airline operator that had no transactions of the types covered must complete pages 1-3.

How to report — Use this form to report revenues and expenses in accordance with the specific instructions on pages 4-7. Report all amounts in thousands ($324,999.00 should be reported as 325. A passenger count of 750,000 should be reported as 750.)

Estimates — If actual figures are not available, supply estimates and label them as such.

Where to send reports — To file a report electronically, see our website at www.bea.gov/eFile for details.
