2.3.1 Source and Secondary Source of Injury or Illness—Definition, Rules of Selection

3.0 DEFINITION

The Source and Secondary Source identify the objects, substances, equipment, and other factors that were responsible for the injury or illness incurred by the worker or that precipitated the event or exposure. The Source and Secondary Source are coded according to the previously identified Event or Exposure as dictated by the Rules of Selection:

GENERAL RULES OF SELECTION FOR SOURCE:

3.1 Whole versus part

3.1.1 Part of a machine, tool, or vehicle

If the injury or illness was inflicted by a specific part of a machine, tool, or vehicle, name the whole machine, tool, or vehicle as the source of injury except when:

- the part separated from or was independent of the "whole";
- the event is overexertion involving an outside source;
- the injury was inflicted by an overhead powerline or the electrical cord of an appliance, tool, or machine;
- the injury was inflicted by the floor of a vehicle in a non-transportation incident;
- the injury was inflicted by a separate machine attached to a vehicle, such as a conveyor attached to a truck;
- the incident involved a tractor and agricultural equipment combination.

In those instances, code that part as source.

Items being transported by a vehicle are considered part of the vehicle. For example, if a box that is being moved by a forklift strikes a worker while still on the forklift, the forklift is considered the source.

3.1.2 Part of a structure

If the injury or illness was inflicted by a specific part of a structure (window, door, stairs) name that part as the source of injury.

*-Asterisks denote a summary level code not assigned to individual cases.

3.2 Containers

When an injury or illness was produced by a filled container, name the container, not the contents, as the source unless the injury or illness was directly inflicted by the contents, such as hot liquids or chemicals.

3.3 Bodily motion or position

Name Bodily motion or position as the source of injury or illness only when the injury resulted solely from the stress or strain induced by the free movement of the body or its parts (voluntary or involuntary), or from the assumption of a strained or unnatural body position.

Bodily motion or position includes injuries or illnesses resulting from reaching, turning, twisting, bending, walking, climbing, running, and from efforts to recover from a loss of equilibrium, provided that the loss of equilibrium does not result in a fall or in forcible contact with an object above the working surface.

Do not name Bodily motion or position as the source of injury or illness if the injury or illness resulted from any of the following:

- falling,
- bumping into or striking an external object,
- nonrepetitive lifting, pushing, pulling, wielding, or throwing an external object.

For injuries or illnesses in which either Repetitive motion or Sustained viewing is coded as the event, select bodily motion or position as the source of injury or illness.

3.4 Choosing between multiple objects or substances:

3.4.1 Contacts with objects or equipment (event): When an injury results from forcible contact with two or more objects, either simultaneously or in rapid sequence, and it is impossible to determine which object directly produced the injury, select the source as follows:

- When the choice is between a moving object and a stationary object, select the moving object. Example: If a person is struck by a rolling vehicle and thrown against a post, name the vehicle as the source of injury.
- When the choice is between two moving objects or between two stationary objects, select that which was contacted last. Example: If a worker is struck by a roll of paper and then a box and it is unclear which caused the head injury, code the box as the source.

*-Asterisks denote a summary level code not assigned to individual cases.

3.4.2 When an injury or illness results from two or more different objects or substances, all of which contributed to producing the injury or illness, select the source code as follows:

- Select the "Multiple" code for that combination of objects and substances if one exists at the appropriate level;
- When the two objects or substances are in the same division and there is no appropriate "Multiple" code, select the divisional n.e.c. code for that division. If they are in the same group within a division, select the group n.e.c.;
- When the two objects or substances are not in the same division, use the code for Other sources, n.e.c.

3.5 Weather, atmospheric conditions, and geological events

Select Weather and atmospheric conditions or geological events—Floods, Earthquakes, Avalanches—as the source of injury or illness when that is the only possible source identified.

For example, if a worker sustained multiple injuries in an earthquake, and no other source could be determined, select earthquake as the source of injury. However, if an employee were driving in a rainstorm and was injured in an automobile accident, select the vehicle as the source.

GENERAL RULES OF SELECTION FOR SECONDARY SOURCE:

3.6 Codes to be used

Use the Source of Injury or Illness Classification Structure for coding secondary source of injury or illness.

3.7 When two objects or substances contributed to an event

In the absence of a specific rule, if two objects or substances contributed to an event, name the object, or substance which was not selected as the source. If more than two objects, substances, other than source, are involved, select:

- powered or energized objects over nonpowered objects,
- moving objects over nonmoving objects,
- objects actively contributing to the event over passive objects.

3.8 Weather, atmospheric conditions, and geological events

*-Asterisks denote a summary level code not assigned to individual cases.

Select Weather and atmospheric conditions or geological events—Floods, Earthquakes, Avalanches—as the secondary source of injury or illness when that is the only possible secondary source identified.

For example, if a worker sustained multiple injuries when struck by an object in an earthquake, select earthquake as the secondary source.

3.9 No contributing factors

If no object, substance, or person is determined to meet the definition and rules listed above, no secondary source is selected. Objects which inflict an injury, but which neither generated the source nor contributed to the event, should not be selected as the secondary source.

For example, if a worker falls from a vehicle in a transportation incident and is injured when hitting the road surface, the road is not selected as the secondary source.

RULES OF SELECTION BASED ON EVENT OR EXPOSURE:

3.10 Violence and other injuries by person or animal

Source: Name the person or animal responsible for the injury or illness.

Secondary source: Name the injury-producing weapon, object, or substance, if any.

Example: If a robber shoots a store clerk in the leg with a handgun, the source would be robber and the secondary source would be the handgun.

3.11 Transportation incidents

Source: Name the vehicle the worker was in or on at the time of the incident. If the worker was struck by a vehicle while on foot, name the vehicle which struck him or her.

Secondary source: Name the object or vehicle with which the worker's vehicle collided, if any. If no collision occurred, then name the contributing object or substance, such as ice, rain, etc. And if two objects were struck, code the object that most likely caused the injury.

Example: If the worker was driving a semitrailer that collided with a passenger van, the source would be the semitrailer and the secondary source would be the passenger van.

Example: If the worker was driving a tractor pulling a plow, fell from the tractor and was struck by the plow, the source would be the tractor and the secondary source would be the plow.

3.12 Fires and explosions

*-Asterisks denote a summary level code not assigned to individual cases.

Source: Name the burning substance or object or the item that exploded.

Secondary source: Name the ignition source or contributing factor, if known.

Example: If a firefighter was burned while extinguishing an electrical fire in a warehouse, the source would be warehouse, and the secondary source would be electrical wiring.

3.13 Falls, slips, trips

3.13.1 Slips and trips without falls

Source: Name bodily motion as the source when a musculoskeletal injury results.

Secondary source: Name the object or substance that contributed to the slip or trip, if known.

Example: If a worker trips over a box on the floor and suffers a sprain in recovering, bodily motion is the source and the box is the secondary source.

3.13.2 Falls on same level

Source: Name the surface on or from which the worker fell.

Secondary source: Name the object or substance, if any, that contributed to the worker's fall.

Example: If a worker slips on a patch of ice in the parking lot and falls breaking her wrist, the source will be the parking lot and the ice will be the secondary source.

3.13.3 Falls to lower level

Source: Name the equipment or part of the structure (structural element) from or through which the worker fell.

Secondary source: Name the object or substance, if any, that contributed to the worker's fall.

Example: If a worker fell to the ground after the roof truss on which he was standing gave way, the source would be the roof truss. The secondary source is left blank because no contributing factor other than the roof truss was mentioned.

3.14 Contact with objects and equipment

Source: Name the object or substance that directly injured the worker.

*-Asterisks denote a summary level code not assigned to individual cases.

Secondary source: Name the object or substance, if any, that contributed to the contact. For falling objects, name the equipment from which the object fell.

Example: If a worker is injured from a box falling from a forklift, the box is named as the source, and the forklift is selected as the secondary source.

3.15 Exposure to harmful substances or environments

Source: Name the substance or environmental condition that injured the worker.

Secondary source: Name the object or environment through which the worker was exposed.

Example: If a worker suffers heat exhaustion while cleaning the interior of a tanker truck, heat would be named as the source and the tanker truck interior (under confined spaces) would be the secondary source.

Example: For indirect contacts with electric current: If a worker is electrocuted from contacting a ladder touching a power line, code the ladder as the source, and the power line as the secondary source.

3.16 Overexertion and bodily reaction

3.16.1 Overexertion involving outside sources

Source: Name the object over which the worker was exerting physical effort.

Secondary source: Name any contributing object or substance, if any.

Example: If a worker strains her back while lifting a box, code the box as the source. Leave secondary source blank since there was no contributing object or substance.

3.16.2 Repetitive motion and bodily reaction

Source: Name bodily motion or position of the injured, ill worker.

Secondary source: Name the contributing equipment, object, or substance, if any.

Example: If a worker suffers tendonitis in the wrist from cutting meat all day, the source is bodily motion and the secondary source is the knife.

*-Asterisks denote a summary level code not assigned to individual cases.

2.3.2 Source of Injury or Illness; Secondary Source of Injury or Illness—Titles and Descriptions

The Source of Injury or Illness code structure is arranged in nine divisions, 1 through 9. Division 9 contains codes for classifying sources that are not classified or listed under any of the other divisions. The Secondary Source of Injury or Illness uses the Source of Injury or Illness titles and descriptions.

The Source of Injury or Illness divisions are arranged as follows:

DIVISION	TITLE
1	Chemicals and Chemical Products
2	Containers, Furniture, and Fixtures
3	Machinery
4	Parts and Materials
5	Persons, Plants, Animals, and Minerals
6	Structures and Surfaces
7	Tools, Instruments, and Equipment
8	Vehicles
9	Other Sources
9999	Nonclassifiable

*-Asterisks denote a summary level code not assigned to individual cases.

1* CHEMICALS AND CHEMICAL PRODUCTS

This division includes chemicals and chemical products in various states—liquids, gases, fumes, vapors, and solids. In general, the specific chemical codes (major groups 11-17) should be used when the specific chemical or type of chemical is known. When only the type of product is known, the appropriate code for the product (major group 18) should be used. There is one exception to this rule. When the source of injury is a drug, alcohol, or medicine taken internally, use a code in section 184. Unspecified vapors or fumes—either toxic or nontoxic—that are not the product of combustion should be coded Chemicals and chemical products, unspecified, code 10. Carbon monoxide resulting from the incomplete combustion of fuels or that is contained in motor vehicle exhaust gas, blast furnace gas, or kiln vapor is coded 1741, carbon monoxide. Tobacco smoke is coded 9242. Smoke from a burning fire is coded 9243, Smoke, fire gases, n.e.c. unless the specific chemical that injured the worker is known.

Includes: acids; alkalis; aromatics and hydrocarbon derivatives; halogens and their compounds; metallic dusts, powders and fumes; agricultural chemicals and pesticides; coal, natural gas, petroleum fuels and products; other chemicals and chemical products

Excludes: tars and sealants (46*); metallic minerals (54*); nonmetallic minerals, except fuel (55*); smoke and fire gases (924*); scrap, waste, debris unless specified as chemical (94*); nonchemical steam and vapors (95*); vermiculite (559)

10 Chemicals and chemical products, unspecified

Includes: unspecified vapors or fumes

11* Acids and alkalis

This group includes acids and alkalis of various types.

110 Acids and alkalis, unspecified

111* Acids

Includes: organic and inorganic acids

Excludes: benzoic and phenylacetic acids (as herbicides) (154); LSD (1842); hydrogen sulfide (1771)

This major group includes alcohols, aldehydes, amines, aromatics, ethers, ketones, peroxides, and nitro hydrocarbons, except for those containing the halogens—chlorine, fluorine, bromine, iodine, or astatine. Halogenated compounds are included under major group 13.

Includes: alcohols, antifreeze, aldehydes, amines—nonaromatic, aromatics, ethers, ketones

Excludes: halogens and halogen compounds (13*)

120 Aromatics and hydrocarbon derivatives, except halogenated, unspecified

121* Alcohols

*-Asterisks denote a summary level code not assigned to individual cases.

13* Halogens and halogen compounds

This major group contains the halogens—bromine, chlorine, fluorine, iodine, and astatine—and their compounds. Halogenated hydrocarbons, such as carbon tetrachloride, and the fluorocarbons are included in this group. Compounds containing both fluorine and chlorine should be coded under Fluorine and fluorine compounds, 132.

Vinyl chloride and polyvinyl chloride are included under plastics, resins, code 1759. Chlorinated hydrocarbons used as insecticides should be classified under 155. Acids containing the halogens are included under source group 111, Acids.

This group includes table salt and calcium, sodium, and potassium chlorides (1319) when these chemicals are specified. Unspecified salt, rock salt, ice-melting salt, and road salt are classified in Chemical products, n.e.c., code 1899, when the specific chemical is not identified.

Includes: bromine and bromine compounds, chlorine and chlorine compounds, fluorine and fluorine compounds, iodine and iodine compounds

Excludes: acids containing halogens (111*); insecticides (155); nonchlorine bleaches (1831); vinyl chloride, polyvinyl chloride (1759); lead salts (144)

14* Metallic particulates, trace elements, dusts, powders, fumes

This group includes metallic fumes, particulates, and liquid solutions other than molten metals. Welding fumes as well as fumes from other heating or smelting processes are included. When the injury is due to solid metal ores or due to the radiation properties of a metal, use Metallic minerals, major group 54*.

Finished metal products should be coded under the appropriate functional category.

Includes: arsenic and compounds; beryllium and compounds; cadmium and compounds; lead and compounds; mercury and compounds; aluminum and compounds; antimony and compounds; chromium and compounds including hexavalent chromium; iron and compounds; magnesium and compounds; manganese and compounds; nickel and compounds; zinc and compounds; welding or soldering fumes, unspecified or n.e.c.; metallic dusts

Excludes: finished metal products; molten or solid metals (45*); radiating metals (542*); coal dust (161); grain dust (5891); other nonmetallic dusts (55*, 941*)

147 Welding or soldering fumes, unspecified or n.e.c.

This code includes fumes and vapors from the welding, brazing, soldering, and cutting of galvanized steel as well as other metals, with the exception of lead. Fumes containing lead compounds should be coded under Lead and lead compounds, code 144. Fumes given off by other heat processes including smelting should be coded under the appropriate metal compound, if known. If unknown, the unspecified category 140 should be used.

148 Multiple metallics and metallic compounds

149 Metallic particulates, trace elements, dusts, powders, fumes, n.e.c.

15* Pesticides and other agricultural chemicals

This category includes such substances as insecticides, pesticides, herbicides, fumigants, rodenticides, and fungicides. These substances should be coded in this category whether used in the agricultural and horticultural industries, by commercial exterminating and pest control companies, or by companies in other industries. Mixtures of plant foods and fertilizers with herbicides are coded under 154, herbicides. Only fertilizers not elsewhere classifiable should be included in code 151. An unspecified pesticide should be coded 150. Calcium hydroxide, calcium oxide, and lime should be classified under code 1123. Ammonium compounds should be classified under code 171*.

Includes: fertilizers and plant food, n.e.c.; fumigants, n.e.c.; fungicides; herbicides; insecticides; rodenticides

Excludes: ammonium compounds (171*); calcium hydroxide, calcium oxide, lime (1123); muriate of potash, white potash (1319); phosphine (1794)

2* CONTAINERS, FURNITURE AND FIXTURES

This division classifies receptacles that are commonly used to hold, store, or carry materials. All containers may be empty or full. Injuries resulting from contact with the spilt contents of the container should be coded according to the contents that inflicted the injury. Pressurized and nonpressurized containers are fix-shaped receptacles used to hold, store, or carry materials. Variable restraint containers include bundles, packages, and rolls where the material being contained is often the surface of the container. This division also classifies furniture; lighting and plumbing fixtures; and floor, wall, and window coverings. The furniture and fixtures classified here may be of any composition, and may be designed for use in households, businesses, or public buildings.

3* MACHINERY

This division classifies light and heavy machinery which perform specific functions or processes under power. Machinery is defined as a combination of smaller machines (elements or parts) which are capable of motion and are contained in a stationary frame. Computer, audio, and video products, as well as heating, cooling and cleaning machinery and appliance are also included in this definition. Machines that are primarily used for transporting people or materials are classified in division 8 (Vehicles). Handheld power tools are classified in major group 72 (Handtools—powered). If a part is known or assumed to be attached to a machine when an injury occurs, then the entire machine should be listed as the source in this division unless the event is overexertion or the injury was inflicted by an electrical cord, overhead powerline, or floor of a vehicle in a non-transportation incident. If a part is known to be unattached and independent of a machine, or if it is probable that a machine is not involved, then that specific part should be selected as the source. The smaller parts which are used in machinery are classified in major group 44 (Machine, tool, and electric parts).

Includes: agricultural and garden machinery; construction, logging, and mining machinery; heating, cooling, and cleaning machinery and appliances; material and personnel handling machinery (e.g., conveyors, cranes, hoists, elevators, etc.); metal, woodworking, and special material machinery; office and business machinery; special process machinery; miscellaneous machinery

Excludes: hoisting accessories (43*); machinery parts (44*); motors (4414); engines (4424); nonpowered handtools (71*); powered handtools (72*); vehicles (8*); powered industrial vehicles—material hauling and transport (862*); tractors, PTOs (863*); forklifts (8621)

30 Machinery, unspecified

31* Agricultural and garden machinery

This major group classifies machinery used to perform specific agricultural and garden functions or processes.

Includes: harvesting and threshing machinery; mowing machinery; plowing, planting, and fertilizing machinery; other agricultural and garden machinery

Excludes: construction, logging, and mining machinery (32*); gravity conveyors (341*); powered conveyors (342*); elevators (346*); parts and materials (4*); feed wagons (483); vehicles (8*); tractors, PTOs (863*)

322* Loaders

This source group classifies machinery which primarily performs loading operations. Loaders basically consist of a movable bucket, either smooth mouthed or toothed, mounted on a series of movable arms at the front of a crawler or rubber-tired tractor. Skid steers with a loading attachment and mini loaders are included here. Skid steers with other types of attachments, such as forklifts, are coded into the appropriate category according to the type of attachment.

Includes: bucket loaders; end loaders; front-end loaders; skid steer loaders; mini loaders

*-Asterisks denote a summary level code not assigned to individual cases.

324* Mining and drilling machinery

This source group classifies machinery which primarily perform mining and drilling operations including oil and gas extraction. Mining machinery is used in removing and transporting valuable solid minerals from their place of natural origin to a more accessible location for further processing or transportation. Many mining-type machines are used for excavating in the construction industry and should be classified accordingly. Drilling machinery is generally used to bore vertical holes while tunneling machinery is generally used to bore horizontal holes. Code 3244 includes machinery involved in oil and gas extraction, such as oil drilling rigs and derricks, powered tongs, drawworks, and crown and block.

Includes: drilling machines, drilling augers; mineral sorters, separators, concentrators; tunneling machines; oil drilling rigs and machinery

Excludes: coal breakers and crushers (3292); grain augers (3427); augers used as conveyors (3427); nonpowered portable handheld augers (7111); nonpowered portable handheld drills (7113); powered portable handheld augers (7211); powered portable handheld drills (7213); offshore oil platforms (6213); pump jacks (3797)

34* Material and personnel handling machinery

This major group classifies machinery which perform specific material handling functions or processes. This category also includes machinery, such as elevators and aerial lifts, used to raise and lift workers to a height needed to perform work tasks.

If a part is known or assumed to be attached to a machine when an injury occurs, then the entire machine should be listed as the source in this division unless the event is overexertion or the injury was inflicted by an electrical cord, overhead powerline, or floor of a vehicle in a nontransportation incident.

If a part is known to be unattached and independent of a machine, or if it is probable that a machine is not involved, then that specific part should be selected as the source.

Material handling machinery are usually composed of many smaller parts and elements. For example, hoisting machines, cranes, derricks, and elevators employ sheaves and pulleys (called blocks) to perform their operations. The majority of these smaller material handling machinery components are classified in major group 43 (Hoisting accessories), and major group 44 (Machine, tool, and electric parts). If power is unknown, such as whether a conveyor is gravity or powered, choose the first one in the coding structure.

*-Asterisks denote a summary level code not assigned to individual cases.

SOURCE

Includes: gravity conveyors; powered conveyors; cranes; overhead hoists; derricks; elevators; jacks; winders, unwinders

Excludes: agricultural and garden machinery (31*); construction, logging, and mining machinery (32*); logging and wood processing machinery (323*); hoisting accessories (43*); machine, tool, and electric parts (44*); scaffolds, staging (634*); vehicles (8*); forklifts (8621)

340 Material and personnel handling machinery, unspecified Package conveyor

341* Conveyors—gravity and nonpowered

This source group classifies conveyors which primarily perform conveying functions through the use of gravity. Gravity conveyors are limited to use in instances where the material being conveyed is to be lowered in elevation or rolled along a level path.

Includes: chutes; roller conveyors; wheel conveyors, including skate wheel conveyors

Excludes: powered conveyors (342*); unattached rollers (4427)

3410 Conveyors—gravity and nonpowered, unspecified

3411 Chutes

3412 Conveyors—roller

3413 Conveyors—wheel

3419 Conveyors—gravity and nonpowered, n.e.c.

342* Conveyors—powered

This source group classifies conveyors which primarily perform conveying functions through the use of an electrical or other power source. Powered conveyors are used in instances where the material being conveyed is to be raised, lowered, or moved along a level path. Live roller conveyors are classified in 3424, regardless of whether they are belt or chain driven. Drycleaning and garment conveyors are coded in 3429.

Includes: belt conveyors; belt loaders; bucket, cup conveyors; chain conveyors; live roller conveyors; pan conveyors; pneumatic conveyors; screw and auger conveyors, such as grain augers; slot conveyors

Excludes: gravity conveyors (341*); chain and belt drives (4422)

*-Asterisks denote a summary level code not assigned to individual cases.

343* Cranes

This source group classifies cranes which primarily are used for lifting heavy weights by means of a movable projecting arm or a horizontal beam traveling on an overhead support.

Includes: floating cranes; gantry cranes; hammerhead cranes; mobile, truck, or rail-mounted cranes; monorail and underhung cranes; overhead cranes; portal, tower, and pillar cranes

Excludes: overhead hoists (344*); derricks (345); elevators (346)

- 3430 Cranes, unspecified
- 3431 Cranes—truck-mounted
- 3432 Cranes—rail-mounted

Includes: railroad cranes

Excludes: monorail cranes, gantry cranes (3436)

3433 Cranes—floating, barge mounted

3434 Cranes—other mobile cranes

Includes: crawler cranes, all-terrain cranes, rough-terrain cranes

- 3435 Cranes—tower, self-erecting, portal, pillar, hammerhead

3437 Cranes—other fixed or stationary cranes

Includes: dock cranes, jib cranes, bulk loading cranes

3439 Cranes, n.e.c.

*-Asterisks denote a summary level code not assigned to individual cases.

344* Overhead hoists

This source group classifies electric, manual, and pneumatic hoists for raising and lowering material with intermittent motion while holding the material freely suspended. This source group also includes aircraft loading hoists.

Includes: powered and manual overhead hoists

Excludes: elevators (346*); hoisting accessories such as fixtures, hooks, or slings (43*); patient hoist (757); automotive lifts (3464)

3440 Overhead hoists, unspecified

3442 Overhead hoists—manual

3443 Overhead hoists—pneumatic powered

3449 Overhead hoists, n.e.c.

345 Derricks and related equipment

This source group classifies material handling machinery which primarily function as derricks, hoisting mechanisms which use ropes or cables running on pulleys.

Includes: a-frame derricks; basket derricks; breast derricks; gin pole derricks; guy derricks

Excludes: oil drilling rigs and derricks (3244); offshore oil platforms (6213)

346* Elevators, hoists, aerial lifts, personnel platforms—except truck-mounted

This source group classifies material handling machinery which is primarily used to lift and lower a load along a fixed vertical path of travel with intermittent motion. This source group also includes farm and grain elevators, building elevators, aerial lifts, and scissor lifts.

The most common elevators use electric motors, cables, pulleys, and counterweights. If any of these specific parts are listed as the source—and they are known to be unattached and independent of an elevator—they are classified in division 4 (Parts and Materials). The source for falls down elevator shafts should be elevator shaft (658).

35* Metal, woodworking, and special material machinery

This major group classifies machinery which primarily perform specific material cutting, shaping, or forming functions or processes. Special material machinery includes those that process plastic, rubber, concrete and other special materials. Many machines classified here are referred to as "Machine Tools"—machines that make the parts for other machines. These machines are commonly used in the manufacturing industries, but may be utilized in other industries as well.

Includes: bending, rolling, shaping machinery; boring, drilling, planing, milling machinery; extruding, injecting, forming, molding machinery; grinding, polishing machinery; lathes; presses (except printing); sawing machinery; threading and tapping machines; electrochemical and discharge machinery (EDM); laser cutting,

Excludes: agricultural and garden machinery (31*); construction, logging, and mining machinery (32*); mining and drilling machinery (324*); material and personnel handling machinery (34*); food slicers (3711); meat grinders (3713); paper production machinery (374*); textile, apparel, leather production machinery (376*); painting, priming, metal coating machinery (3796); nonpowered handtools (71*); powered handtools (72*); handheld power saws (7224); powered surfacing handtools (724*)

350 Metal, woodworking, and special material machinery, unspecified

351* Bending, rolling, shaping machinery

This source group classifies machinery which primarily perform metal bending, rolling, or shaping functions to produce workpieces without cutting or removing material. These machines may be used to bend, roll, or shape other materials (e.g., wire, plastics) as well. A calender is a form of press which uses rollers or plates to smooth and glaze cloth, rubber, or paper, or to form these materials into thin sheets. Paper production calenders are classified in 3741 (Calenders/supercalenders—paper production). All other calenders are classified here.

Includes: bending, crimping machines; shearing machines; rolling mills, rolling, calendering machinery

Excludes: calenders used in the paper production industry (3741)

3510 Bending, rolling, shaping machinery, unspecified

3511 Bending, crimping machines

3512 Shearing machines

3513 Rolling mills, rolling, calendering machinery

3519 Bending, rolling, shaping machinery, n.e.c.

352* Boring, drilling, planing, milling machinery

This source group classifies machinery which primarily perform material cutting functions (boring, drilling, planing, and milling). The drilling process creates a hole while the boring process enlarges and trues existing holes. Reamers are used to produce precise hole sizes with a smooth finish. Planers cut large, flat surfaces on a workpiece, or cut many small parts simultaneously. Many milling machines are being replaced by machining centers (3523) which do a number of different operations—milling, drilling, boring, facing, spotting, counterboring, threading, and tapping—in a single setup.

353* Extruding, injecting, forming, molding machinery

This source group classifies machinery which primarily casts, extrudes, forges, or injects molten metal, plastics, rubber, or other special materials to produce work pieces.

Includes: casting machinery; extruding machinery; forging machinery; plastic injection molding machinery

Excludes: heaters, home furnaces (3324); cooking ovens (3326); industrial ovens used for drying agricultural products, kilns (3325); dies, molds, patterns (4421)

354* Grinding, polishing machinery

This source group classifies machinery which primarily perform material surfacing and finishing operations (by grinding or polishing). Grinding machines usually employ a coarse, abrasive wheel. Honing and lapping machines use abrasive sticks, plates, or rolls for precise metal-finishing operations.

Includes: grinders, abraders; honing, polishing, lapping machinery

Excludes: meat grinders (3713); powered surfacing handtools (724); buffers, polishers, waxers—powered (7241); powered hand grinders (7242)

361* Computers and peripheral equipment

This source group classifies mainframe, micro, personal, and mini-computers and the peripheral equipment such as printers and terminals used in conjunction with the computer. Computers are coded depending on the type of injury. If a worker is injured from typing on a keyboard, use code 3613. Bar code scanners are included in 3614. If the worker suffers eyestrain, use code 3611. If the worker is injured while lifting a computer or laptop or dropping it on his or her foot, use code 3612. If documents indicate only that a person was injured while performing “data entry” with no indication of the equipment, use code 3618.

Includes: cathode ray tubes (CRT's) and video display terminals (VDT's); computer monitors and screens; electronic computers; computer keyboards; optical scanners; grocery store bar-code scanners; printers and plotters

Excludes: audio and video equipment (391*); word processors (3626); automated teller machines (3621); robots (392); video games (7639); computer cables (4418); personal digital assistants, cell phones, smartphones (3913)

4* PARTS AND MATERIALS

This division classifies machine parts, tool parts, and automobile parts, as well as building materials, insulating materials, and nonstructural metal materials. Many of the parts and materials classified here are the smaller components of larger machines, tools, vehicles, buildings, etc. In most instances, detailed codes for "parts" are provided for those parts expected to be sources of injury independent of the "whole" machine, tool, vehicle, building, or other object.

If a part is attached to a machine, tool, or vehicle, then the entire machine, tool, or vehicle should be listed as the source, unless the event is overexertion or the injury was inflicted by an electrical cord, overhead powerline, or floor of a vehicle in a non-transportation incident.

If a part is known to be unattached and independent of a machine, tool, or vehicle—or if it is probable that a machine, tool, or vehicle is not involved in the injury—then that specific part should be listed as the source.

If the material identified as the source of an injury is the general floor surface in a building or on the ground, then the appropriate structure or surface in Division 6 (Structures and Surfaces) should be listed as the source.

If the material identified as the source of an injury is an independent, unattached element, then that specific element (part or material) should be listed as the source.

Includes: building materials—solid elements; structural metal materials; fasteners, connectors, ropes, ties; hoisting accessories; machine, tool, and electric parts; metal materials—nonstructural; tars, sealants, caulking, insulating material; tarps and sheeting—nonmetal; vehicle and mobile equipment parts

Excludes: chemicals and chemical products (1*); paint, lacquer, shellac, varnish (186*); containers (2*); hoses (2122); furniture and fixtures (2*); lighting fixtures (224*) and plumbing fixtures (225*); machinery (3*); metallic minerals (54*); nonmetallic minerals (55*); structural elements (65*); vehicles (8*); apparel and textiles (91*); paper, sheets (932)

415* Wood, lumber

This source group classifies individual pieces of wood and lumber materials that are primarily used in the construction of buildings and other structures. Dimensional lumber or plywood sheets that are part of a banded bundle should be classified in source group 2131 (Bundles, bales) as a variable restraint container. Plywood, paneling, and lumber that are known to be parts of buildings or other structures should be classified in Division 6 (Structures and Surfaces). If the composition of an unattached beam is unknown, use code 4133.

Includes: dimensional lumber (2x4's, etc.); plywood, wood paneling; particle, chip and flake board; wood pieces, trim pieces

Excludes: boards and sheets as part of a bundle (2131); wood shingles (4143); boards and wood sheets as part of a building or other structure (6*); metal beam (4133); beam attached to a building (6551)

423 Valves, nozzles

This source group classifies valves which are primarily used for connecting pipe together, or are used to control the flow of liquids and gases through a system.

Excludes: hoses (2122); pressure lines (2124); pipes (412*)

429 Fasteners, connectors, ropes, ties, n.e.c.

43* Hoisting accessories

This major group classifies unattached hoisting accessories which are primarily used in conjunction with the hoisting machinery classified in source group 344 (Overhead hoists). These are primarily hoisting machinery attachments designed to grip, pick up, or carry heavy materials. If the accessory is known to be attached to a hoisting machine, the entire machine should be listed as the source.

Includes: fixtures, load indicators; hooks, shackles, magnets, clamshells, orange peels, grapples, anchors, cant hooks, grapnels, grappling irons, grappling hooks; slings

Excludes: logging skidders, logging cable and grapple skidders (3233); pulleys, sheaves, block and tackle, cable, winches (4423)

439 Hoisting accessories, n.e.c.

44* Machine, tool, and electric parts

This major group classifies unattached machine, tool, electric, and vehicle parts and materials. In general, if a part classified in this group is attached to a machine, tool, or vehicle at the time of injury then that entire machine, tool, or vehicle should be listed as the source, unless the event is overexertion or the injury was inflicted by an electrical cord, overhead powerline, or floor of a vehicle in a non-transportation incident.

Includes: electric parts; machine and appliance parts; tool parts, accessories

Excludes: machinery (3*); handtools (7*); vehicles (8*)

*-Asterisks denote a summary level code not assigned to individual cases.

440 Machine, tool, and electric parts, unspecified

441* Electric parts

This source group classifies electric parts which primarily carry or generate electrical currents for machinery, vehicles, and other sources which require electrical systems. These codes are used regardless of whether they are attached to the electrical grid or are separate. Motor vehicle engines are coded in source group 482 whether those engines are fueled by fossil fuel, biofuel, electric motors, or some other fuel source or combination of fuel sources.

Includes: electrical wiring or cable; generators; magnetic and electrolytic apparatus; motors; power lines, transformers, convertors; relays, rheostats, starters, controls; switchboards, switches, fuses, fused cutouts; batteries except vehicle; alternators, armatures, coils, distributors, spark plugs

Excludes: battery acid (1115); lamps, light bulbs (224*); nonvehicle fans (3312); nonelectrical wiring (4226); nonvehicle engines, turbines (4424); vehicle engines (4823); vehicle batteries (4821); vehicle fans (4824); electrical towers (6352)

442* Machine and appliance parts

This source group classifies unattached parts which primarily function as the operating parts of machines and appliances. Included here is mechanical power transmission equipment for industrial machinery and aircraft. Vehicle parts and engines are classified in major group 48 (Vehicle and mobile equipment parts).

Electrical equipment for automobiles (except batteries) and other internal combustion engines, such as generators and alternators, is included in source group 441 (Electric parts).

This source group also includes machine parts which are used for molding, stamping, cutting, or shaping. Some items included here are punches, forming and stamping devices, dies, steel rule, diamond dies, and die-casting molds.

If a part is known or assumed to be attached to a machine when an injury occurs, then that entire machine should be listed as the source, unless the event is overexertion or the injury was inflicted by an electrical cord, overhead powerline, or floor of a vehicle in a non-transportation incident.

If a part is known to be unattached and independent of a machine, or if it is probable that a machine is not involved, then that specific part should be selected as the source.

Includes: dies, molds, patterns; chain, leather, fabric, and vee belt drives; drums, pulleys, sheaves (blocks), cable and winches; nonvehicle engines, turbines; friction clutches; gears; rollers

Excludes: roller conveyors (3412); molding machinery (353*); hoisting accessories (43*); vehicle engines (482*); cables not attached to winches (4226)

443* Tool parts, accessories

This source group classifies unattached tool parts and accessories.

If a part is known to be attached to a tool or machine when an injury occurs, then the entire tool or machine should be listed as the source, unless the event is overexertion or the injury was inflicted by an electrical cord, overhead powerline, or floor of a vehicle in a non-transportation incident.

If a part is known to be unattached and independent of a tool or machine, or if it is unknown whether a tool or machine is involved, then that specific part should be selected as the source.

Includes: unattached drill bits; unattached saw blades

Excludes: machinery (3*); stationary drills (3521); stationary sawing machinery (357*); nonpowered cutting handtools (712*); powered cutting handtools (722*)

49* Other parts and materials

This major group classifies all parts and materials that are not elsewhere classified. This category includes unattached caps, lids, and covers.

490 Other parts and materials, unspecified

491* Caps, lids, covers

Caps, lids, and covers that are separated from their containers or other structures and cause injury are coded here. For example, if the cap from a pressurized pipe, hose, valve, or other container comes off and strikes or cuts an employee, the cap would be coded as the source. If the lid is still attached to the container, such as being struck by a dumpster lid, code the container. Caps worn on a person's head are coded 9113.

4910 Caps, lids, covers, unspecified

4911 Container caps, lids, covers

555 Mud

556 Rocks, crushed stone

This source group classifies hard, nonmetallic mineral matter not specified elsewhere as may be found in quarries or in natural settings. Gravel is classified in 557.

557 Sand, gravel

This group includes all types of sand and gravel used for a variety of purposes.

558 Silica

This group classifies hard, glassy mineral (silica) found in a variety of forms such as quartz, sand, and opal.

Includes: silica dust

559 Nonmetallic minerals, except fuel, n.e.c.

Includes: vermiculite

56* Person—injured or ill worker

This major group classifies bodily conditions and self-induced bodily motion injuries.

Includes: bodily conditions of injured, ill worker; bodily motion or position of injured, ill worker

Excludes: injuries or illnesses inflicted by bodily fluids, substances, or other

*-Asterisks denote a summary level code not assigned to individual cases.

persons (57*)

560 Person—injured or ill worker, unspecified

561 Bodily conditions of injured, ill worker

This source group classifies physical, mental, or emotional conditions—such as unexplained faintings, heart attacks not attributed to other sources, and work-related stress—which result in nervous disorders, symptoms or illnesses. This code must be used when Event or exposure is 74, Bodily conditions, n.e.c.

562 Bodily motion or position of injured, ill worker

This source group classifies stress or strains induced by a free movement of the body or its parts, with no impact involved. This group is also used for coding awkward or sustained positions of the injured worker as well as the motion of the person for motion sickness cases. This code must be used when the Event or exposure is coded as Repetitive motions involving microtasks (72*) or other exertions or bodily reactions (73*).

569 Person—injured or ill worker, n.e.c.

This code is used as the source for suicides and other intentional self-inflicted injuries.

57* Person—other than injured or ill worker

This major group classifies various types of persons other than the injured or ill worker. In general, people are classified according to their relationship with the injured or ill worker or with the establishment for which the employee works.

Spouses and domestic partners (5711) include current and former spouses, common law spouses, and current and former boyfriends and girlfriends even if not known whether living together. Other friends of the injured or ill worker are coded as Acquaintances (576). If a person can be classified in more than one category (571-577, 579), choose the first code in the list describing the person's relationship with the injured worker or establishment. For example, if a co-worker robs a business, choose co-worker (5721) because it is listed before robber. However, if a police officer is shot while trying to apprehend a person who had robbed a store, use code 5773 Suspect not yet apprehended, since the robber was not trying to rob the police officer.

570 Person, other than injured or ill worker, unspecified

571* Relative or domestic partner of injured or ill worker

*-Asterisks denote a summary level code not assigned to individual cases.

5710 Relative or domestic partner of injured or ill worker, unspecified

5711 Spouse or domestic partner of injured or ill worker

Includes: spouse, domestic partner, ex-spouse, estranged spouse, husband, ex-husband, wife, ex-wife, boyfriend, ex-boyfriend, girlfriend, ex-girlfriend, estranged boyfriend or girlfriend, common law spouse

Excludes: other room- or house-mates (576), relative other than spouse (5712 or 5719)

5712 Immediate family member other than spouse

Includes: son, daughter, father, mother, brother, sister, parent

5719 Relative or domestic partner of injured or ill worker, n.e.c.

Includes: uncle, aunt, cousin, nephew, niece, grandson, granddaughter, in-laws, grandparent

572* Co-worker or work associate of injured or ill worker

This group includes an employee or past employee of the business, as well as a contractor working as a temporary employee on the same site. Co-workers are defined as people who know or directly work with the injured or ill worker, or have done so in the past. Work associates are individuals who may work (or have previously worked) for the same establishment, in the same building, or as a contractor, for example. Work associates are less likely to know the injured worker personally or work with him or her on a day-to-day basis. For example, for a nurse working in a hospital, doctors, nurses, supervisory nurses, technicians, and others who work directly with that nurse are co-workers. Other employees of the hospital, such as security, food service, or administrative personnel, are more likely to be work associates. When an athlete is injured during a sporting event or training exercise, code 5721, Co-worker, if the injury is from contact with a team member or fellow trainee. If the injury is from contact with someone from another team or an opponent as in a boxing match or wrestling meet, code 5723, Work associate. Other business competitors are coded in 5729, Co-worker or work associate, n.e.c.

573 Student

This category includes students in primary or secondary school, as well as college, university, or daycare students. Students in other types of training programs, such as martial arts or flight training, would be classified as Other client or customer (575).

574 Patient

This code includes a patient in any type of healthcare facility, including doctor's and dentist's offices, hospitals, nursing homes, and mental health facilities. Patients cared for in their own homes and patients of emergency medical services are also included.

Mental health patients who have committed a crime and are in a correctional facility are coded as 5772. Residents of halfway houses and assisted living facilities are coded as Other clients or customers (575) unless the injured or ill employee was working in a health care capacity when injured by the patient.

575 Other client or customer

This code includes persons with a legitimate relationship with the business and who are being served by the business.

Includes: bar patron, tenant, parolee, resident of halfway house or assisted living facility

Excludes: health care patients (574), inmates of correctional facilities (5772), robbers posing as customers (5771)

576 Acquaintance

This code includes all other persons known to the injured worker.

Includes: friend, neighbor, roommate other than domestic partner, member of same gang

Excludes: family member (571*), client (575), boyfriend or girlfriend (5711), patient (574), co-worker (572*)

*-Asterisks denote a summary level code not assigned to individual cases.

577* Assailant, suspect, inmate

This group includes persons who have no legitimate relationship to the business of the injured worker or its employees and includes perpetrators of various types of robbery or theft.

5770 Assailant, suspect, unspecified

5771 Robber

If the worker was injured while he, she, or the establishment was being robbed, choose 5771. If the motive or the motive was unclear, choose 5770.

Includes: robber, shoplifter, mugger, carjacker

Excludes: co-workers (5721); former co-workers (5722); inmates or detainees in custody (5772); robbery suspect injuring responding police officer (5773)

5772 Inmate or detainee in custody

This category includes inmates of correctional institutions and suspects that have been apprehended or are being detained by police or security personnel.

Includes: mental health patient held in correctional facility, resident of correctional facility

Excludes: mental health patient held in other than correctional facility (574); residents of halfway houses (575)

5773 Suspect not yet apprehended

Choose this code when the worker is injured by someone who is suspected of a crime but not yet apprehended—such as when a police officer is shot while responding to a domestic violence call or in response to a shooting or robbery. Persons being apprehended or stopped for traffic violations and who have committed no other crimes are coded in 5779.

5779 Assailant, suspect, n.e.c.

Choose this code when a worker is injured by a person who is committing a crime, such as an injury during a sexual assault, hate crime, shooting spree, or traffic violation, and no other code is appropriate.

*-Asterisks denote a summary level code not assigned to individual cases.

58* Plants, trees, vegetation—not processed

This major group classifies plants, trees, and vegetation in a natural or unprocessed condition. Source group 587, trees, logs, limbs, includes cut trees with or without limbs as well as tree branches. Thorns are coded according to the relevant plant. Pollen is coded 5899.

Includes: cash grain crops (including corn, rice, soybeans, wheat); field crops (including cotton, potatoes, sugarcane, tobacco); flowers; houseplants; poison ivy, oak, sumac; reeds, shrubs, marshes, grasses; trees, logs, limbs; vegetable plants

This division classifies all types of structures and structural elements including building structures and systems, bridges, stadia, tunnels, towers, and dams as well as confined spaces, structural elements, and natural structures. Also classified here are walking, working, and road surfaces. Structural elements, including doors, windows, roofs, and walls, are classified in major group 65 (Other structural elements).

If the material identified as the source of an injury is the general floor surface in a building or on the ground, then the appropriate structure or surface in this division should be selected as the source.

If the material identified as the source of an injury is an independent, unattached element, then that specific element should be listed as the source, Part or material, Division 4. Structural elements such as prefabricated roof trusses and windows, structures in their own right, should be listed as the source regardless of whether they are independent or part of a building. Any ladder that is a fixed or temporary part of any structure is classified in major group 74 (Ladders).

Includes: building systems; floors, walkways, ground surfaces; other structural elements; structures

Excludes: bricks, blocks, structural stone (411*); unattached structural metals (413*); unattached building materials (41*); ladders (74*)

60 Structures and surfaces, unspecified

61* Confined spaces

This major group classifies structures that are considered confined because their configurations hinder the activities of employees who must enter, work in, and exit them. A confined space has limited or restricted means for entry or exit, is not designed for continuous employee occupancy, and there is increased risk of exposure to serious physical injury from hazards such as entrapment, engulfment and hazardous atmospheric conditions. A workspace is included if it contains, or has the potential to contain a hazardous atmosphere; contains a material that has the potential to engulf an entrant; or has walls that converge inward or floors that slope downward and taper in a smaller area which could trap or asphyxiate an entrant. Spaces coded in this section may include spaces not considered as confined according to OSHA.

These codes would typically be used as the secondary source for incidents involving confined spaces.

This code includes confined spaces that are open vertically but confined on the sides by trench walls, for example. Spaces that are confined vertically should be in source group 612 (Underground mines, caves, tunnels).

Excludes: non-confined culverts and ditches (6676)

612* Underground mines, caves, tunnels

This source group classifies underground mines, caves, sewers and storm drains, and tunnels (including subway, train, sewer, and pedestrian tunnels).

Includes: mines, mine tunnels (6121); pedestrian tunnels (6124); sewers, manholes, storm drains, and culverts (6122); subway and train tunnels (6123)

62* Buildings—office, plant, residential

This source group classifies office, plant, and residential buildings including factories, warehouses, sheds, barns, boat houses, apartments, skyscrapers, gas stations, schools, theaters, auditoriums, etc. Sports facilities are classified in 632, Grandstands, stadia. These codes are to be used for structure collapses (both caught in or fall resulting from), fires and explosions, and transportation collisions involving structures. Generally falls and jumps from buildings would be coded according to the structural element the worker fell or jumped from (roof, balcony, structural steel, elevator shaft). Exceptions are offshore oil platforms, silos, and grain bins. Areas within these structures that conform to the definition of a confined space are coded in 61*.

64* Building systems

This major group classifies the mechanical systems in a building, including the climate control and plumbing systems. This category will primarily be used as a secondary source to classify building system complications which produce injuries or illnesses. For example, illnesses produced by foreign particles in the air may be the result of a poor ventilation (climate control) system; illnesses produced by contaminated drinking water may be the result of a poor plumbing system.

Includes: climate control systems; plumbing systems; security systems

Excludes: light fixtures (224*); plumbing fixtures (225*) electric parts (441*)

65* Other structural elements

This group classifies the separate structural elements that are parts of buildings and other structures. Structural elements should be listed as the source of an injury regardless of whether they are independent or part of a building.

Includes: doors and door frames; fences, fence panels; gates; roofs; roof trusses; skylights; ceilings, walls; windows; elevator shafts

Excludes: unattached building materials (41*); unattached bricks, blocks, structural stone (411*); unattached structural metals (413*); ladders (74*); cupboard or cabinet doors (2212); railroad tracks (6396); floors (662*); stairs and escalators (661*) ramps; loading docks (6692)

650 Other structural elements, unspecified

651* Entrances and exits

Codes 6511 and 6512 include both the door itself and the door frame. These codes are used regardless of whether they are powered or not. Vehicle doors are coded in 485*.

7* TOOLS, INSTRUMENTS, AND EQUIPMENT

This division classifies handtools (nonpowered, powered, power not determined), ladders (fixed, movable), equipment (photographic, protective, recreation, athletic), and instruments (medical, surgical). Other tools and instruments such as clocks, eating and cooking utensils, firearms, other health care and orthopedic equipment, musical instruments, sewing notions, wheelchairs, and writing supplies are also included in this division.

If a part that produces an injury is attached to a tool (e.g., a saw blade or drill bit) then the entire tool should be listed as the source, unless the injury was inflicted by the electrical cord.

If a part is known to be unattached and independent of a tool—or if it is probable that a tool is not involved in the injury—then that specific part should be listed as the source. Unattached drill bits and saw blades are classified in source group 443 (Tool parts, accessories).

Certain handtools are manufactured in both powered and nonpowered varieties. If it cannot be determined whether a handtool is powered or nonpowered, it should be classified in major group 73 (Handtools—power not determined).

Includes: nonpowered handtools; powered handtools; handtools—power not determined; ladders; medical and surgical instruments and equipment; photographic equipment; protective equipment (except clothing); recreation and athletic equipment; clocks; cooking and eating utensils (except knives); firearms and other weapons; musical instruments; sewing notions, n.e.c.; writing, drawing, and art supplies

Excludes: containers (2*); furniture and fixtures (2*); tool chests (2212); machinery (3*); mechanical jacks (347); parts and materials (4*); hoisting accessories (43*); machine, tool, and electric parts (44*); tool parts and accessories (443*); tarps (472)

71* Handtools—nonpowered

This major group classifies all nonpowered handtools which are handheld and operated. Handtools in this major group are not powered by electricity, fuel (gasoline, coal), air, steam, water, or gunpowder. Nonpowered handtools are classified according to their common functions at the source group level (e.g., boring, cutting, digging, gripping, etc.). Unattached drill bits and saw blades are classified in source group 443 (Tool parts, accessories). Certain handtools are manufactured in both powered and nonpowered varieties. If it cannot be

72* Handtools—powered

This major group classifies all of the tools which are hand-held and require a source of energy to operate (i.e., electricity, gasoline, diesel, coal, air, steam, water, or gunpowder).

Powered handtools are grouped according to their common functions. If a drill bit, saw blade, or other tool part that produces an injury is attached to a handtool then the entire handtool should be listed as the source, unless the injury was inflicted by an electrical cord. Unattached drill bits and saw blades are classified in source group 443 (Tool parts, accessories). If a part is known to be unattached and independent of a handtool—or if it is probable that a handtool is not involved in the injury—then that specific part should be listed as the source. Handtool parts are classified in source group 443 (Tool parts, accessories). Certain handtools are manufactured in both powered and nonpowered varieties. If it cannot be determined whether a handtool is powered or nonpowered, it should be classified in major group 73 (Handtools—power not determined).

74* Ladders

This major group classifies fixed and movable ladders of any construction: wooden, steel, aluminum, plastic, etc. Fixed ladders are immovable, permanent fixtures. Movable ladders are portable, foldable, or extendable. Generally, the source for falls involving ladders on trucks and or fixed ladders on structures will be coded according to the type of truck or structure.

Includes: fixed ladders; movable ladders

Excludes: stairs, steps (661*)

740 Ladders, unspecified

741 Ladders—fixed

This source group classifies fixed ladders that are immovable, permanent fixtures. Included here are ladders that are used in silos, sewers, fire escapes, and swimming pools. Generally, the source for falls involving fixed ladders attached to structures will be coded as the structure.

8* VEHICLES

This division classifies vehicles that generally move on wheels, runners, water, or air. A vehicle serves the primary purpose of transporting people (e.g., automobiles, passenger trains), but it may serve as a means of carrying or transferring goods and materials (e.g., forklifts, wheelbarrows) or to pull other machinery (tractors). In addition, a vehicle may serve primarily as a recreational device (e.g., canoes, bicycles, jet skis, etc.). Vehicles for all modes of public, private, work-related, and recreational transportation are included in this division.

Machinery which are primarily used for agricultural, construction, logging, mining, manufacturing, and other processing purposes are classified in Division 3, Machinery.

A vehicle or piece of mobile equipment should be selected whenever the event is a transportation incident.

If a vehicle part that produces an injury is attached to the vehicle, then the entire vehicle should be listed as the source, unless the injury resulted from overexertion (such as pulling the cargo door of a tractor trailer), the incident involved a tractor/agricultural equipment combination, or the source of injury was a vehicle floor in a non-transportation incident.

If a vehicle part is known to be unattached and independent of a vehicle—or if it is probable that a vehicle is not involved in the injury—then that specific part should be listed as the source. Unattached vehicle and mobile equipment parts are classified in major group 48 (Vehicle and mobile equipment parts). Unattached trailers are classified in source group 483 (Trailers). Unattached vehicle windshields and windows are classified in source group 484 (Windshields, vehicle windows). Unattached rail cars are included in 8244.

Includes: air vehicles; rail vehicles and rail cars; water vehicles; motorized highway vehicles; nonmotorized highway vehicles; off-road vehicles including powered plant and industrial vehicles; tractors; nonpowered plant and industrial vehicles

Excludes: machinery (3*); agricultural and garden machinery (31*); construction, logging, and mining machinery (32*); material and personnel handling machinery (34*); ski lifts (3481); unattached vehicle and mobile equipment parts (48*); vehicle doors, liftgates, tailgates (485*)

designed for public, private, or military use.

An air vehicle code should be selected as either the source or secondary source whenever the event is an aircraft incident.

Includes: powered fixed wing aircraft; powered rotary wing aircraft; non-powered aircraft; spacecraft

810 Aircraft unspecified

811* Airplanes—powered fixed wing

This source group classifies aircraft which is supported by a fixed wing structure. The airplane can be jet engine or propeller powered.

Includes: turbine or piston type aircraft, planes

Excludes: helicopters (8121); nonpowered gliders (8131)

8110 Airplane—powered fixed wing, unspecified

84* Highway vehicles, motorized

This major group classifies vehicles which are operated primarily on highways and other public roadways and used for transportation, hauling, delivering, and emergencies. If it is unknown whether a vehicle is being used to carry passengers or cargo, use the first code in the list. For example, if source documents say “van,” code as 8415.

Includes: automobiles; buses; motorcycles, mopeds, dirt bikes; motor homes, recreational vehicles; trucks; vans

Excludes: nonmotorized highway vehicles such as bicycles (851); horse-drawn carriages (852); off-road vehicles such as forklifts (8621); tractors (863*); golf carts (8612)

840 Highway vehicle, motorized, unspecified

841* Passenger vehicles—automobiles, buses, and passenger vans

This source group classifies vehicles that are used primarily for transporting passengers. Vehicles for transporting goods and materials are in source group 842. Vans that are not specified as either passenger or cargo should be coded as 8415, passenger van.

Excludes: trucks (842*), pickup trucks and SUV’s (843*)

8410 Passenger vehicle, unspecified

8411 Ambulance, police, and other emergency passenger vehicle

Includes: squad car, cruiser, patrol car, police car, ambulance

8412 Taxi

*-Asterisks denote a summary level code not assigned to individual cases.

SOURCE

This code includes automobiles, vans, SUVs, and limos used as taxis. Airport shuttles are also included here.

Excludes: animal-powered taxi (85*), pedicab (851); water taxi (835); air taxi (81*)

8413 Automobile

Includes: car, limousine, unspecified automobile or car

Excludes: taxi (8412), police car (8411), rail car (8244), racecar (8613); armored car (8429)

8414 Bus

Includes: transit bus, tour or charter bus, school bus, intercity bus

8415 Passenger van

Excludes: cargo and delivery van (8426), courtesy airport van (8412), taxi (8412)

8416 Motorcycle, moped, dirt bike

Includes: motor bike, motor scooter

8417 Motor home, RV

Includes: recreational vehicle (RV)

Excludes: mobile home (6254), semi-permanent trailer home (6254), manufactured home (6254)

8419 Passenger vehicle, n.e.c

842* Trucks—motorized freight hauling and utility

This source group classifies trucks which are commonly used for transporting, hauling, and delivering goods and materials. Delivery trucks are straight or box trucks that are typically used to deliver such items as parcels, beverages, oil, linens, and furniture. Straight and box trucks used for other purposes besides delivering goods are also included in code 8426. Delivery and cargo vans are coded in 8426. Semitrailers that are used for delivering automobiles or other items are coded 8421.

*-Asterisks denote a summary level code not assigned to individual cases.

SOURCE

Includes: delivery (box) trucks; dump trucks; semitrailers, tractor trailers, trailer trucks; boom trucks; cherry pickers unless known to be non truck-mounted; dump trucks; garbage trucks; fire trucks; delivery trucks and vans; cement trucks; tow trucks; armored trucks; snow plows

Excludes: street sweepers (894); forklifts (8621); tractors (863*); hand trucks (871); passenger vans (8415); non truck-mounted aerial lifts (3467); pickup trucks (8431); SUVs (8432)

8420 Truck—motorized freight hauling and utility, unspecified

Includes: truck, unspecified

8421 Semi, tractor-trailer, tanker truck

Includes: tanker trucks, flatbed trucks—except straight trucks, logging trucks, car haulers

Excludes: fire trucks (8425)

8422 Boom truck, bucket or basket hoist truck

Includes: utility bucket trucks; cherry-pickers, unless known to be non-truck-mounted

Excludes: non-truck-mounted aerial lifts (3467); non-truck-mounted cherry pickers (3469)

8423 Dump truck

8424 Garbage, recycling, or refuse truck

8425 Fire truck, other emergency equipment truck

Includes: hazmat trucks, SWAT trucks, emergency equipment haulers

Excludes: emergency passenger vehicles (8411)

8426 Delivery truck or van

Includes: box trucks, straight trucks, postal delivery trucks, cargo vans, delivery vans

Excludes: SUV's, sports utility vehicles (8432); pickup trucks used for deliveries (8431); passenger vans (8415)

862* Industrial vehicles, material hauling and transport—powered

This group classifies forklifts, powered industrial carriers, and industrial vehicles which are used for carrying and transporting heavy materials in primarily nonroadway areas.

Includes: forklifts; powered industrial carriers; airport utility vehicles; powered pallet jacks

*-Asterisks denote a summary level code not assigned to individual cases.

SOURCE

Excludes: tractors and power take-offs (863*); product assembly robots (392)

8620 Industrial vehicle, material hauling and transport—powered, unspecified

8621 Forklift, order picker, platform truck—powered

Includes: tow motors, lift trucks, skid steers with forklift attachment

8622 Powered industrial carrier

Includes: container, lumber, stacker, and straddle carriers

8623 Pallet jack—powered

Includes: motorized pallet jacks—riding or hand

Excludes: nonpowered pallet jacks (872); jacks, other than pallet (347)

8624 Airport utility vehicle—powered

Includes: powered luggage trucks or trains, powered airplane tugs

8629 Industrial vehicle, material hauling and transport—powered, n.e.c

863* Tractors, PTOs

This source group classifies tractors which are commonly used for towing agricultural and hauling implements. Power take-offs (PTOs) connecting tractors to another piece of equipment are coded here.

Incidents resulting solely from the equipment attached to the tractor, such as being caught in a baler, should be coded to the specific equipment involved. Incidents in which the worker falls from a moving tractor and is struck by the equipment being pulled are coded with the tractor as the source and the attached equipment as the secondary source.

Includes: farm, industrial, and construction tractors; power take-offs

Excludes: haying machines (3123); tractor-mowers (3123); hay mowers (3123); brush hogs (3123); loaders (322*); semi tractor trailers (8421)

92* Environmental and elemental conditions

This major group classifies conditions of the environment such as air pressure, temperature, and other atmospheric conditions, as well as events such as natural disasters. Select weather and atmospheric conditions or geological events (floods, earthquakes, avalanches) as the source of injury when that is the only possible source identified. Code 9252, waves, surges, rough seas, includes high waves, hurricane storm surges, and tidal waves. If a hurricane caused the damage rather than a storm surge, code in 9277.

Includes: air pressure; avalanche, mudslide; earthquake; fire, flame, smoke; flooding; environmental temperature extremes; weather and atmospheric conditions; noise, sun, welders' flash, indoor air quality

920 Environmental and elemental conditions, unspecified

921* Air pressure

926* Temperature extremes—environmental

This source group classifies atmospheric and environmental temperature extremes—either indoors or outdoors. Codes in this category are used primarily in instances of heat stroke, heat exhaustion, hypothermia, etc.

Excludes: fire, flame, smoke (924*); ice, sleet, snow (9273); hot or cold objects

9260 Temperature extremes—environmental, unspecified

9261 Cold—environmental

9262 Heat—environmental

927* Weather and atmospheric conditions

This source group classifies weather and atmospheric conditions. If rain or high winds are a result of a hurricane or tornado, code the hurricane or tornado as the source. When the injury results from a weather condition, but is inflicted by another specific source, code the specific source. For example, if high winds result in blowing sawdust which irritates the employee's eyes, the sawdust should be coded as the source.

Excludes: air pressure (921*); avalanche (922); earthquake (923); flooding (9251); hot and cold environmental temperature extremes (926*); sun (9292); waves, surges, rough seas—except those occurring during tornado, hurricane, typhoon (9252); ice chips, cubes, and blocks (953); ice on freezer floor (953)

Includes: unspecified dust

Excludes: grain dust (5891), coal dust (161), silica dust (558), asbestos dust (551), wood dust, sawdust (9414)

9412 Broken glass, glass chips, or fibers

This code should be used if a worker is injured when handling broken glass. If a glass breaks and the worker is burned by hot contents of the glass, code the hot liquid as the source and glass as the secondary source. Injuries from glass splinters are also included in this category.

9413 Metal chips, particles

Includes: steel shots (non-ammunition); shrapnel from metal sources other than explosives or bullets; metal splinters

Excludes: shrapnel from ammunition or explosive devices (782); scrap metal (945); metal slag (452)

95* Other steam, vapors, liquids, ice

This major group classifies water, steam, water vapor, and other liquids and vapors not elsewhere classified. Cleaning agents and other chemical fluids and vapors are found in Chemicals (1*).

Includes: nonchemical steam, vapors; liquids, water

Excludes: rain (9275); water pressure changes occurring during diving (9253); blast of pressurized water (9254); flood (9251); chemicals and chemical products and fumes (Division 1*)

950 Steam, vapor, liquids, ice, unspecified

951 Steam, vapors—nonchemical

This code classifies water that is converted into vapor or gas by being heated to the boiling point, and water vapor kept under pressure so as to supply energy for heating, cooking, or mechanical work.

952* Liquids—nonchemical

This source group classifies water with temperature above the freezing point and at or below the boiling point, and liquids not elsewhere classified. If a worker slips and falls due to an unknown liquid or the narrative states “wet floor,” code 9520, liquids, unspecified. If the liquid is known, such as a fall on spilt juice, code the liquid, beverages (5224).
