

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK of CLEVELAND

Community Advisory Council (CAC) – Hybrid Meeting Tuesday, April 9, 2024 8th Floor – Executive Board Room

AGENDA

Time	Topics & Participants
10:00–10:10	Welcome and Introductions Tracey N. Mason, Assistant Vice President of Outreach, Community Development
10:10-10:15	Opening Remarks Dr. Loretta J. Mester, President and Chief Executive Officer, Executive Office
10:15-10:30	Community Affairs Officer (CAO) Update Emily Garr Pacetti, Vice President and Community Affairs Officer, Community Development
10:30–10:50	Economic Outlook Presentation and Q/A Guhan Venkatu, Senior Policy Advisor, Regional Analysis
10:50- Noon	CAC Roundtable Discussion Tracey N. Mason, Assistant Vice President of Outreach, Community Development Please be prepared to discuss the following questions: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What is the biggest challenge your organization expects to face this year, and how do you plan to overcome it? 2. What is your take on the labor market? From your perspective, are jobs “plentiful”, “hard to get”, or “hard to find” for lower-income communities you serve? What obstacles, if any are impacting their ability to return to work or find employment—and have these changed in the last few months?
Noon–12:30	Lunch & Networking
12:30–1:00	Bank Tour & Adjourn Tracey N. Mason, Assistant Vice President, Community Development

Next CAC Meeting – October 1, 2024 at Noon