

New retail food processes

Starting June 8, the license fee for the food retail license depends on which food-processing activities are performed. The fee is determined by adding $25 for each of the following activities.

Select all food processes performed by business:

Selling prepackaged cold foods

Scooping ice (including bagged ice for retail sale)

Heating commercially processed foods or cold holding foods

Cooking raw animal products

Cooling cooked foods

Reheating previously cooked foods

Serving raw or undercooked animal products (beef, eggs, fish)

Specialized process (fermentation, curing, sous vide, etc.)

Infusing products with hemp