ELECTION RESULTS FOR THE U.S. PRESIDENT, THE U.S. SENATE AND THE U.S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

This publication has been prepared by the Federal Election Commission to provide the public with the results of elections held in the fifty states during 2000 for the offices of United States President, United States Senator and United States Representative. Also included are the results for Delegate to Congress from American Samoa, the District of Columbia, Guam, the U.S. Virgin Islands and Resident Commissioner for Puerto Rico. In addition, there are results for the special election to fill the unexpired U.S. Senate term in Georgia. The Commission undertakes this project on a biennial basis in order to respond to public inquiries.

The elections for these federal offices are administered by local election officials in towns, counties, municipalities, and other jurisdictions. The results of the elections are certified by the state government, which in most cases is the Secretary of State. While the full records are available for public inspection, most states prepare summary reports for public dissemination. These summary reports vary in form and content, and may be amended well after the election. There is no standard format that states use in reporting federal election results.

Recognizing a need to bring together in one place the federal election results, the Commission presents this publication as the tenth in a series designed to provide an accurate, historical record of federal election results.

Included in this publication are the official results of primary elections and runoff elections held in 2000. As in the case of the general elections, primary elections are not administered by the federal government. In some states (such as Connecticut, Utah, and Virginia), political party organizations control their nomination process by way of conventions. In other states, state law may regulate the primary and/or its administration.

Data is based on official figures provided by State election officials, and includes results amended through June 2001. If the election results are modified in the future, the Commission will supply errata supplements as necessary. The assistance provided by the State election officials and their staff in gathering this data is greatly appreciated.

This publication has been prepared as a research tool for Commission staff and State election offices. Additional copies may be ordered from the National Technical Information Service (NTIS), U.S. Department of Commerce, 5285 Port Royal Road, Springfield, Virginia 22161. (800/553-6847 and 703/605-6000.) Online orders may be placed at <http://www.ntis.gov>.

Federal Elections 2000 may also be viewed and/or downloaded from the Commission's Web site, <http://www.fec.gov>.

EXPLANATORY NOTES

- The candidate who was the winner of the general election is listed first in the entry for each state and district (where applicable). After that, the candidates are arranged by party affiliation.
- Incumbent candidates facing re-election in 2000 are designated with an (I) to the left of the candidate's name. The lack of an (I) in a particular Senate race or U.S. House district indicates an open seat race.
- The party affiliation of the candidate is as listed on the ballot and has been abbreviated. A complete listing of party abbreviations appears at the end of this publication.
- Total for write-in votes are shown as disclosed by the state. Some states list the names of candidates who received write-in votes, while others provide a write-in vote total without the names of the candidates who received the votes. Still other states combine these two variations and provide the names of some candidates who received write-in votes and a total of write-in votes for all the other candidates.
- Convention votes, where shown, are as disclosed by the state parties.
- "Total Votes," "Total Party Votes" and "Total District Votes" represents all the valid votes cast for the candidates in the election.
- "Combined Parties" represents all the valid votes cast for one candidate, regardless of party. (This method is used where a candidate may be listed on the ballot more than once, with different party designations; i.e., in Connecticut, New York and South Carolina.) These votes are then broken down and listed by party. The party votes are enclosed by brackets [].
- The percentage of votes received by each candidate is based on the figure of total votes. The percentage of votes received by each candidate in a primary or runoff election is based on the figure of total votes cast in that specific primary or runoff election.
- Due to the rounding of percentage numbers, some percentages may not total 100%.

2000 ELECTION RESULTS

The following four sections present the primary, runoff and general election results for the U.S. Presidential, U.S. Senate and U.S. House of Representatives elections held in 2000. Also included are the special election results for the U.S. Senate election to fill the unexpired term in Georgia.

The November 2000 general election resulted in the election of the 107th Congress. The following is the party composition of the 107th Congress, as determined by the results of that election:

U.S. Senate

Republicans: 50

Democrats: 50

U.S. House of Representatives

Republicans: 221

Democrats: 212

Independents: 2

Notes on Charts

- * Runoff election vote totals have been included with the primary election totals. (For the U.S. Senate, runoff elections were held in Mississippi and Texas. For the U.S. House of Representatives, runoff elections were held in Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Mississippi, Oklahoma, South Carolina and Texas.)
- * In Connecticut, Utah and Virginia, political parties may nominate general election candidates by party convention, rather than by primary election. Convention vote is not included in primary election vote totals.
- * In some states, there were unopposed candidates whose names did not appear on a ballot and therefore received no votes.
- * Only 34 states had U.S. Senate elections in 2000 (including Georgia's special election).
- * The above three situations, which provide fewer opportunities for voter participation, account for blank spaces in the charts and should be considered when making comparisons or drawing conclusions.

* Under state law, the official canvass will only include write-in votes if the total votes for write-in candidates may affect the outcome of the election. However, a formal request for a candidate's write-in votes to be counted may be filed with the appropriate election officer not later than two days after the election. The results shown above for Nader, although not part of the official state canvass, were tallied in accordance with such a request.

* A candidate is endorsed by the party at the party convention. If a qualified challenger to the party endorsed candidate receives 15% of the delegate votes on roll call at the convention, and files for a primary, a primary election is held. Otherwise, the party endorsed candidate is the nominee. Convention nominees are noted with an asterisk. The dates of the conventions for each congressional district were: 1st: Democratic 7/22, Republican 7/10; 2nd: Democratic 7/22, Republican 7/8; 3rd: Democratic 7/22, Republican 7/24; 4th: Democratic 7/22, Republican 7/10; 5th: Democratic 7/22, Republican 7/10; 6th: Democratic 7/22, Republican 7/15.
