A family who goes on a tropical vacation ends up at a beach in a remote area of an island, where they plan to just relax for a couple of hours. They go about their day as usual, but before long, they discover that they are all starting to age at a rapid rate. Their lives become trapped in that one day due to the fact that they can't control this strange condition that is causing them to grow older every 30 minutes, and that there doesn't appear to be a way for them to escape from the mysterious beach. Starring Gael Garcia Bernal, Vicky Krieps, Rufus Sewell.

Don't feel like cooking a whole Thanksgiving meal? We will be offering a pre-cooked dinner for 4 again this year. Check out the Thanksgiving Meal flyer for more details.
