General Information

On March 20, 2018, the Student and Exchange Visitor Program (SEVP) published its quarterly edition of SEVP Spotlight.

The latest edition of SEVP Spotlight includes an article from SEVP Director Rachel Canty that discusses new SEVP tools and how they help improve understanding of federal regulations and enhance student compliance. These tools include training modules for Student and Exchange Visitor Information System users and the SEVP Portal for international students participating in practical training opportunities.

This edition of SEVP Spotlight also features:

- An update from the SEVP Field Representative Unit on understanding the student reporting requirements associated with the Form I-17, “Petition for Approval of School for Attendance by Nonimmigrant Student.”
- Information about the new Guide to Studying in the States.
- Tips for designated school officials serving F-1 international students in kindergarten through grade 12.

For these articles and other program updates from SEVP, download the March 2018 edition of SEVP Spotlight on Study in the States.
