

RICARDO LARA
CALIFORNIA INSURANCE COMMISSIONER

NOTICE

TO: Prelicensing Education Providers and Other Interested Parties

FROM: Curriculum and Officer Review Bureau

DATE: April 13, 2023

SUBJECT: Revised Bail Educational Objectives

Revised Bail Curriculum The California Department of Insurance (Department) recently approved the Commissioner-appointed Curriculum Board's revisions to the Bail Educational Objectives (EOs).

Revision Description The revised EOs include information regarding the new Bail Fugitive Recovery Agent (BFRA) license. The revised EOs are available on the Department's Prelicensing Educational and Examination Objectives webpage.

Revised Examinations Effective Date Updated license examination questions based on the revised EOs will be launched on July 1, 2023.

Actions Required for Education Providers To prepare students for the updated questions, prelicensing education providers who have active bail prelicensing courses are required to update their training material and begin teaching from the revised EOs on or before June 1, 2023.

Instructions for Renewing Existing Prelicensing Courses Prelicensing education providers must submit their updated course curriculum to the Department at the time they renew these courses in addition to all of the following required items:

- 1) Completed provider course renewal letter, LIC 446-38
- 2) Renewal filing fee of $41 for each course
- 3) Updated prelicensing course materials
- 4) Documentation with cross references between the updated training material and the revised EOs

Instructions for Submitting
New Prelicensing
Courses

Effective immediately, prelicensing education providers submitting a new bail prelicensing course or courses must submit all of the following required items to the Department:

- 1) Completed Prelicensing/Continuing Education Program Course Approval Application, LIC 446-3, for each course
- 2) Filing fee of $83 for each course
- 3) Prelicensing course materials
- 4) Documentation with cross references between the training material and the revised EOs

Additional Information

For questions regarding this Notice or to receive a copy of the edited versions of the revised course outline and its attachments, please contact the Department's Curriculum Review Section by email at CDI.Education@insurance.ca.gov or by telephone at (916)492-3064.
