

Shawn Ginwright, PhD

*Founder and CEO of Flourish Agenda, Inc.
Professor of Practice, Harvard Graduate School of Education*

EDTalks 2023

Wednesday, September 27

Hyatt Regency Jacksonville Riverfront

11:30 AM - 1:00 PM

The Jacksonville Public Education Fund invites you to be a part of the fourth biennial EDTalks event, which brings education's thought leaders to Jacksonville to share innovative ideas, best practices and approaches that are working around the country and around the world. Education leaders, supporters and partners are inspired at EDTalks to take action and work together to move the needle on important issues facing our students.

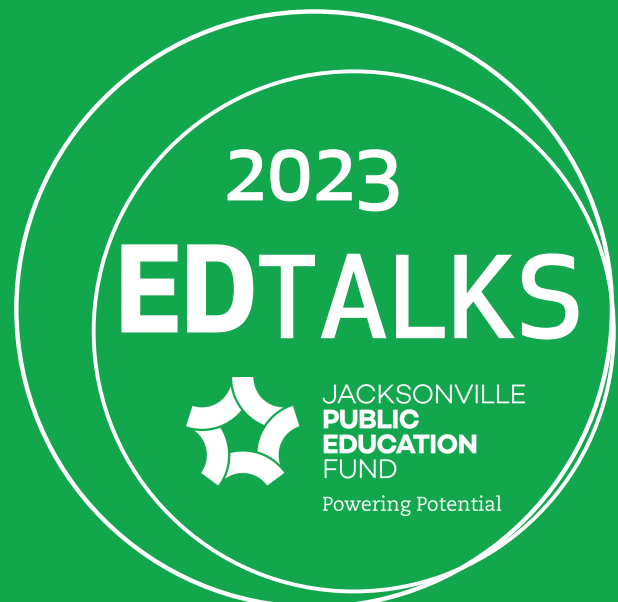

Over the last few years, students have been charged to learn through a global pandemic, COVID-19, and a more rapidly changing world than ever, significantly impacting public education. The students and graduates of recent years have been rightly called a resilient generation, and it is important for us to all reflect on the opportunities ahead to create environments, in school and community, where they can flourish and receive the support they need to maximize their potential.

We are excited to welcome Shawn Ginwright, PhD as our featured speaker, and to hear directly from leading Duval County students themselves during this year's program.

Shawn Ginwright, PhD is one of the nation's leading innovators, provocateurs, and thought leaders on African American youth, youth activism, and youth development.

His research examines the ways in which youth in urban communities navigate through the constraints of poverty and struggle to create equality and justice in their schools and communities.

Dr. Ginwright is Founder and Chief Executive Officer of Flourish Agenda, Inc., a national nonprofit consulting firm, whose mission is to design strategies that unlock the power of healing and engage youth of color and adult allies in transforming their schools and communities.
