JOINT MOTION FOR ENTRY OF AGREED ORDER

The Parties in the above-entitled cases jointly move this Court to enter as its Order the attached Agreed Order and Exhibit A thereto, which embody the Parties’ agreement for a resolution of the Plaintiffs’ claims in these actions. In support of this motion, the Parties state as follows:

1. On December 20, 2004, the S.H. Plaintiffs filed a complaint (Doc 1 in S.H. v. Reed, 2:04-cv-1206) challenging conditions at Defendants’ juvenile correctional facilities. On May 16, 2008, the United States also filed a complaint (Doc 2 in U.S. v. Ohio, 2:08-cv-475) challenging conditions at Defendants’ juvenile correctional facilities.
2. On February 18, 2014, the S.H. Plaintiffs filed a motion for specific performance (Doc 389) and alleged a failure “to provide adequate treatment to youth who are or have been on the mental health caseload. As a result many of these youth are experiencing excessive periods of seclusion . . . .” Id at p. 1.

3. On March 31, 2014, the United States filed a supplemental complaint to include claims relating to Indian River Juvenile Correctional Facility, Circleville Juvenile Correctional Facility, and Cuyahoga Hills Juvenile Correctional Facility. (Doc 140). On April 29, 2014, the United States renewed its motion for a temporary restraining order in United States v. Ohio, raising concerns about Defendants’ use of seclusion for all youth with an identified mental health disorder (Doc 145).

4. Thereafter, the Parties engaged in settlement negotiations aimed at addressing the issues raised in those filings, and the parties have now reached agreement on a resolution of Plaintiffs’ claims. The Parties’ agreement is embodied in the Joint Proposed Order and Exhibit A thereto, which is attached to this motion.

ACCORDINGLY, the Parties request that the Court enter the attached Joint Proposed Order and Exhibit A thereto as its Order. Subject to the conditions in the Joint Proposed Order, the S.H. Plaintiffs request that the Court dismiss without prejudice their motion for specific performance, and the United States requests that the Court dismiss without prejudice the United States’ renewed motion for a temporary restraining order and the claims in the United States’ supplemental complaint concerning youth who are not on the mental health caseload.
