Commission Structure and Composition

The New Jersey Racing Commission is a nine-member, bi-partisan body. The members are appointed by the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, for a term of six years. One such member shall be designated by the Governor to serve as chairman of the Commission.

The nine-member Commission is tasked with regulating horse racing and wagering on such racing in the State of New Jersey. The Commission drafts regulations and implements policy relating to all matters involving horse racing and the wagering thereon. Further, the Commission and its staff conduct permitting and licensing procedures, including issuing licenses to all horse owners, trainers, jockeys, drivers, veterinarians, and all other persons involved in the horse racing industry in New Jersey. The Commission and its staff determine whether to issue permits which allow entities to conduct horse racing and the wagering thereupon, and to operate the facilities where racing and wagering occur. In New Jersey, wagers can be made at teller counters at all three operating racetracks, all six operating Off-Track Wagering Facilities and the Borgata Hotel Casino and Spa in Atlantic City, as well as via internet, mobile application and telephonically.

The New Jersey Racing Commission has a full-time staff of employees who are charged with conducting the daily functions involving regulation of horse racing in the State of New Jersey. In addition to the full-time employees, the Commission maintains a pool of per diem employees to supplement staff as needed. Many of the part-time and seasonal employees only work on days when racing is conducted. The full-time Commission staff consists of administrative functionaries, investigators, race officials, financial analysts, veterinarians, and support personnel.

In addition to permitting and licensing responsibilities, the Commission is tasked with ensuring the integrity of the sport and the wagers made thereupon. Every wager made is recorded and checked for accuracy and compliance with the Commission's rules. Commission staff calculates financial information from these wagers for proper distribution of funds. Staff oversees all operational aspects of pari-mutuel wagering, account wagering and exchange wagering to best ensure the integrity of the wagering aspects of the sport.

The Commission employs racing officials to monitor the running of every race that takes place in New Jersey. Other than the races themselves, the New Jersey Racing Commission has jurisdiction over all licensees and licensed tracks, farms and training facilities, as well as any location in the State of New Jersey where a racehorse is located. Should a violation occur anywhere the Commission has jurisdiction, the racing officials are tasked to issue penalties and make judgments on all matters involving violations of the Commission's rules.

Furthermore, the New Jersey Racing Commission employs a staff of investigators to monitor the activities at all of the racetracks, off-track wagering facilities, participating casino simulcast facilities, off-track stabling facilities and training facilities.

Additionally, Commission veterinarians are employed to ensure the safety of the human and equine participants of the sport. Commission veterinarians are present at every live race to verify that each horse is fit to race. In addition to observation of the races themselves, Commission veterinarians are responsible for taking post-race blood samples from selected horses to be tested for the presence of any drugs or substances foreign to the natural horse. This testing is done in conjunction with a testing laboratory that has entered into a contract with the New Jersey Racing Commission. Throughout the year of 2016, Truesdail Laboratories in Irvine, California served as the contracted laboratory.

During the calendar year of 2016, the following persons served on the Commission: Anthony T. Abbatiello, Manny Aponte, Dr. Michael Arnone, Pamela Clyne, Peter J. Cofrancesco III, Anthony De Paola, David Gruskos, Francis X. Keegan, Jr. and Peter Roselle.

On April 17, 2014, Commissioner Pamela Clyne was designated chairman and has served in that capacity since that time.

On April 13, 2016, Commissioner David Gruskos resigned his post and was not involved in any Commission matters after that date.

On May 16, 2016, Commissioner Manny Aponte resigned his post and was not involved in any Commission matters after that date.

Tragically, Commissioner Anthony De Paola died on June 4, 2016 due to complications from a surgical procedure. He is mourned and missed by his fellow Commissioners and Commission Staff.

At year's end, there are 6 sitting Commissioners and 3 vacancies awaiting appointment.

Further, the New Jersey Racing Commission employs staff to implement its policies. The full-time staff is led by an Executive Director who is responsible for overseeing the day-to-day operations of the Commission. Frank Zanzuccki has served as the Executive Director since his appointment in 1992 and continued that post throughout the entire year of 2016.

Budget

The Total Operating Budget for the fiscal year of 2016 is $7,620,350. This represents an increase of $116,114, or 1.55%, from the total operating budget of fiscal year 2015. The increase in budget for the current year is attributed to the increase in fringe benefit rate (35.2% to 37.6%). Also, the budget includes the annual assessment for the work and efforts of the Division of Law related to Sports Wagering Legislation in the amount of $375,000.

For budgetary purposes, operational activities are broken down into four functional areas. The 2016 Fiscal Year Budget for each area is as follows (with the 2015 budget numbers in parenthesis):

New Regulations

Claiming Rules

Subchapters N.J.A.C. 13:70-12, Claiming (Horse), and N.J.A.C. 13:71-14, Claiming (Harness), of the New Jersey Administrative Code, underwent a thorough restructuring in 2016. The primary purposes of these amendments were to reflect current industry practice, lessen the risk of death or severe injury to human and equine racing participants, provide greater protection to claimants, protect the health of the horses participating in racing and to maintain the integrity of the sport. The claiming rules for both horse racing and harness racing had not been updated in quite some time and many of the rules did not reflect the current practices of many racing jurisdictions, both domestically and internationally.

After completing the initial proposal process, the Commission voted to advertise the proposed amendments for public comment on July 13, 2016. The proposal was thereafter published on August 15, 2016 in the New Jersey Register Volume 48, Number 16. On November 16, 2016, the Commission voted to adopt the amendments as proposed. The adoption of the rules, along with responses to public comments, was published on December 19, 2016 in the New Jersey Register Volume 48, Number 24.

Permit Applications

The New Jersey Racing Commission is responsible for granting permits to allow persons or entities to conduct thoroughbred and standardbred racing in the State of New Jersey. Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 5:5-38, each person, partnership, association or corporation desiring to conduct a race meeting within the State of New Jersey must submit a permit application to do so. This past year, permit applications were due by October 15, 2016. A separate permit must be submitted for each requested race meeting.

On October 15, 2016 the New Jersey Thoroughbred Horsemen's Association (NJTHA) submitted an application to conduct two thoroughbred race meetings in 2017. The request specified that racing would occur on 71 dates in the year 2017, with one meet consisting of 56 days of racing to be conducted at Monmouth Park and a second meet consisting of 15 days of thoroughbred racing to be conducted at the New Meadowlands Racetrack. Included with the NJTHA's permit application was an application for a special permit, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 5:5-38.2, to conduct a one day steeplechase race meeting in Far Hills, NJ.

Also on October 15, the New Jersey Racing Commission received three applications to conduct standardbred race meetings, one from New Meadowlands Racetrack, LLC and two from FR Park Racing, LP. Along with these three applications was correspondence from the Standardbred Breeders and Owners Association of New Jersey endorsing the proposed race meetings. New Meadowlands Racetrack, LLC proposed to conduct a race meeting consisting of 91 race days to run from January 6, 2017 through December 30, 2017. FR Park Racing, LP proposed to conduct two separate race meetings, the first to consist of 49 racing days between January 5, 2017 through May 6, 2017, while the second would consist of 46 racing days between September 1, 2017 through December 30, 2017.

The New Jersey Racing Commission held a public meeting on November 16, 2016 to discuss the issuance of permits to the applicants. The Commissioners tabled the vote on the special racing permit for the Steeplechase race meeting at Far Hills until all notifications and approvals are obtained. The Commission voted unanimously to grant permits to the applicants on the other matters.

Exchange Wagering

N.J.S.A. 5:5-168, et seq., the Exchange Wagering Act, became effective on January 28, 2011. In 2015, the New Jersey Racing Commission enacted N.J.A.C. 13:74C, Exchange Wagering, which set forth rules regulating exchange wagering in the State of New Jersey. In 2015, as reported last year, the first exchange wagering license was granted to the New Jersey Sports & Exposition Authority, the license to manage and operate the exchange was granted to Darby Development, LLC and the license to act as services agent and provider was granted to Betfair US, LLC. At the time, the Commission set forth numerous conditions that must be satisfied prior to the system becoming operational.

The New Jersey Racing Commission determined that all of the conditions were eventually met and the exchange wagering system became operational on April 18, 2016. Upon becoming operational, New Jersey became the first and only state in the nation to offer exchange wagering. As of the end of this calendar year, New Jersey remains the only state in the nation to offer this type of wagering on horse racing.

Off-Track Wagering Facilities

As of December 31, 2016, there are six Off-Track Wagering Facilities licensed to operate in New Jersey. They are located in Vineland, Toms River, Woodbridge, Bayonne, Gloucester Township and Hillsborough. All operated for the full calendar year of 2016. The financial handle of these facilities is attached.

On or about October 11, 2016 the New Jersey Racing Commission received an application for an Initial Off-Track Wagering License for a facility to be located in Egg Harbor Township, New Jersey. The process for an initial OTW License requires both the New Jersey Sports & Exposition Authority as well as the operator of the facility, in this case ACRA Turf Club, LLC, to submit completed applications. The Commission received both completed applications and is in the process of reviewing them.

New Jersey Horse Racing Injury Compensation Board

The Commission encouraged the creation of this Board that provides group workers' compensation insurance for the horse racing industry. The Board consists of representatives of the public and private sector including members of horse racing organizations, the state Department of Banking and Insurance, and the New Jersey Racing Commission. The program covers horse racing industry employees. In 2016, the Board continued in the assigned risk program with NJM providing the insurance coverage. Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 34:15-139, the Board is required to submit an annual financial report and a report of its activities to the NJRC no later than March 31st of each year.

Casino Simulcasting

The only casino licensed to conduct simulcasting of horse races is the Borgata Hotel Casino and Spa. The New Jersey Racing Commission regulated the wagering at the Borgata Casino throughout 2016 and continues to do so. The financial handle of the facility is attached.

Horsemen's Organizations

There are three major horsemen's organizations operating in New Jersey: the New Jersey Thoroughbred Horsemen's Association, the Standardbred Breeders' and Owners' Association of New Jersey, and the Thoroughbred Breeders Association of New Jersey. The horsemen's organizations operate independently but are mandated by statute to receive portions of the proceeds of the wagering handle. It is the Commission's responsibility to determine that the proper percentages are distributed to each organization. In 2016, there were no major issues relating to the statutory distribution of these monies.

Pilot Program

Existing legislation created a "pilot program" allowing horse wagering terminals to be implemented in bars and restaurants in northern New Jersey should certain conditions be met. In 2015, one application was received for such an implementation. Although a license was granted to the applicant, no such machines were installed and the applicant allowed its license to lapse.

In 2016, a new application to participate in the pilot program was received. Several deficiencies were noted in the application and the applicant was asked to provide additional information for review by the Commission. No further action is expected until 2017.

New Jersey Human and Equine Testing Program

The New Jersey Racing Commission is also responsible for administering testing for the human and equine participants of horse racing in the State of New Jersey. New Jersey Racing Commission veterinarians and animal health inspectors are employed to take blood and urine samples from selected horses after each race. Further, jockeys and drivers must submit to random urine tests and breathalyzer tests. The following is a summary of the results of those tests for 2016:

Rule Violations and Administrative Law Hearings

A survey of the Racing Commission's records has revealed 309 violations of the New Jersey Racing Commission rules in 2016. For a full listing and description of the violations, please visit <http://www.nj.gov/oag/racing/njrcrulings.html> and enter the appropriate date range. Of those found in violation, certain licensees chose to appeal those decisions to the Office of Administrative Law. As of December 31, 2016, there are 15 appeals of Racing Commission rulings awaiting decisions. In the calendar year of 2016, the Commission resolved several contested matters either via settlement or issuance of a final decision. Hearings have been scheduled before an Administrative Law Judge in several of the matters and the Commission anticipates the remaining pending matters to be resolved in 2017.

The following matters were resolved in 2016 via either settlement or issuance of a final decision:

Douglas Nunn v. New Jersey Racing Commission

On July 24, 2014, Douglas Nunn ignored the orders of racetrack officials by opening the overhead door of the paddock area and proceeding into the paddock area to school his horse while work crews were performing required maintenance in the area. On July 30, 2014, the New Jersey Racing Commission Board of Stewards at Monmouth Park racetrack found Nunn in violation of N.J.A.C. 13:70-1.15, N.J.A.C. 13:70-1.8 and N.J.A.C. 13:70-16.4. The stewards imposed a fine of $1,000 upon Nunn for his actions. Nunn appealed the ruling and the case was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law on September 12, 2014.

In an effort to amicably resolve the matter, the New Jersey Racing Commission and Douglas Nunn agreed to enter into settlement negotiations. The Commission agreed to lower the fine to $500 and Nunn admitted to the charged violations. Nunn also dropped his appeal of the matter and waived his rights to any future appeal. The parties signed the settlement agreement and the Commission voted to accept the terms of the settlement at the New Jersey Racing Commission public meeting that took place on February 10, 2016.

Alejandro Maymo v. New Jersey Racing Commission

On May 10, 2014, the horse "Mr. Fahrenheit," trained by Alejandro Maymo, tested positive for two anti-inflammatory drugs that are not permitted to be used in conjunction with one another. On June 6, 2014 the Board of Stewards at Monmouth Park Racetrack found Maymo in violation of N.J.A.C. 13:70-14A.9(f)(3), N.J.A.C. 13:70-1.15 and 13:70-20.7. As required by N.J.A.C. 13:70-14A.9(g)(1), the Board of Stewards imposed a $500 fine and 15 day license suspension upon Maymo.

Maymo appealed the ruling and the case was sent to the Office of Administrative Law on July 10, 2014. A motion for summary decision was filed on behalf of the Racing Commission. On February 3, 2016, the Administrative Law Judge issued an initial decision finding that the facts were undisputed and that the penalty imposed was appropriate pursuant to the Commission's duly enacted rules. The Commission voted unanimously to adopt the Administrative Law Judge's initial decision in its entirety at the Commission's meeting held on April 6, 2016.

Jeffrey Dauplaise v. New Jersey Racing Commission

On April 2, 2015, the horse "Fountainbleu Volo," trained by Jeffrey Dauplaise, entered into a qualifying race at Freehold Raceway. The post-race blood test of "Fountainbleu Volo" returned a positive finding for stanozolol, a steroid. As a result of the positive test, the State Steward ordered the New Jersey State Police to conduct a search of Dauplaise's barn and office located at Showplace Farms in Englishtown, NJ. Upon arrival, Inspector Mark Wettengill of the New Jersey State Police Horse Racing Squad discovered no less than 6 refrigerated substances as well as 75 bottles of drugs and 37 syringes on shelves beside the refrigerator. Along with these substances, Inspector Wettengill also discovered a clipboard with various receipts, invoices and written prescriptions referencing additional drugs.

On March 7, 2016, the Board of Judges found Dauplaise in violation of numerous regulations of the New Jersey Racing Commission and assessed a cumulative penalty of a 5-year license suspension and $25,000 fine. Dauplaise appealed the ruling and requested a stay of the penalties pending resolution of the appeal. On March 21, 2016, the Executive Director of the New Jersey Racing Commission issued a ruling denying Dauplaise's request for a stay. Dauplaise then filed an emergent application for a stay with the Appellate Division of the New Jersey Superior Court. Dauplaise's motion was denied by the Appellate Division.

Thereafter, in an effort to amicably resolve the matter, Dauplaise and the New Jersey Racing Commission agreed to enter into a settlement agreement. The terms of the settlement lessened the suspension from 5 years to 3 years and increased the fine from $25,000 to $35,000, to be paid in installments. Dauplaise agreed to withdraw his appeal and waived all rights to any future appeals in this matter. A majority of the Commission voted to accept this settlement proposal at the Commission's meeting held on September 14, 2016.

New Jersey Racing Commission v. New Jersey Sports and Exposition Authority

In January 2013, the New Jersey Sports and Exposition Authority ("NJSEA") notified the New Jersey Racing Commission that a particular account wagering patron had incurred a deficit of approximately $286,000 in his wagering account. Thereafter, the Commission learned that the NJSEA had engaged in an improper action with the patron in regards to the procedure utilized when depositing funds into his wagering account. Upon receipt of a check or notice of a wire transfer, the NJSEA was immediately crediting the patron's account as if cash had been deposited. When the wire transfers failed to arrive and certain checks went unpaid, the patron's account accumulated a deficit of approximately $286,000. The NJSEA used its own monies to satisfy the debt in order that the New Jersey account wagering system would not be negatively impacted. The patron eventually paid his debt in full.

In order to avoid the expense and inconvenience of prosecuting an administrative hearing and potential appeal, the Commission and the NJSEA entered into settlement negotiations. The Commission and the NJSEA eventually entered into a settlement agreement whereby the NJSEA agreed to make a payment of $20,000 for the alleged violation of the Off-Track and Account Wagering Act and the Commission's rules. Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 5:5-44.8a, the full $20,000 payment will be utilized for the Backstretch Fund. At the Commission's meeting held on November 16, 2006, the Commission unanimously voted to approve the terms of the settlement.

Carmen Auciello v. New Jersey Racing Commission

On March 14, 2014, the horse "Miss Machqueen," trained by Carmen Auciello, tested positive for methylprednisolone. On September 9, 2014 the Board of Judges at the New Meadowlands Racetrack found Auciello in violation of N.J.A.C. 13:71-7.29(a)(13), N.J.A.C. 13:71-23.1 and N.J.A.C. 13:71-23.6. As a result of these violations, the Board of Judges imposed a $500 fine and 15-day license suspension upon Auciello.

Auciello appealed the ruling and the case was transmitted to the Office of Administrative Law. A hearing was conducted before Administrative Law Judge Margaret Monaco on February 1, 2016. On September 6, 2016 Administrative Law Judge Monaco issued an initial decision finding that the facts were undisputed and that the penalty imposed was appropriate pursuant to the Commission's rules. The Commission voted unanimously to adopt the Administrative Law Judge's initial decision in its entirety at the Commission's meeting held on November 16, 2016.

Pending Legal Proceedings

NCAA, et al. v. Governor, Zanzuccki, et al.

New Jersey passed a law in 2014 that would allow sports betting to occur in casinos and racetracks. A conglomerate of the largest sports organizations in the United States challenged the law as a violation of the Professional and Amateur Sports Protection Act ("PASPA"). A lawsuit was brought by the sports organizations and in December of 2014 the federal District Court enjoined sports betting at casinos and racetracks, finding that the New Jersey law was a violation of PASPA. The defendants appealed this ruling and the Third Circuit affirmed the District Court's ruling in a 2-1 opinion on August 25, 2015. Defendants moved the Third Circuit to rehear the appeal en banc. The Third Circuit granted the Defendants' motion.

In the past year, as is relevant to this Annual Report, several notable actions occurred in this matter. On February 17, 2016, the Third Circuit heard oral argument of this case en banc. On August 9, 2016, the Third Circuit again upheld the ruling of the District Court, this time in a 9-3 opinion. The State of New Jersey and the New Jersey Thoroughbred Horsemen's Association petitioned the United States Supreme Court for a writ of certiorari. Subsequently, five other states have filed amicus briefs arguing that the Third Circuit, in its August 9, 2016 decision, radically expanded federal preemption and disregarded the Supreme Court's anti-commandeering jurisprudence. The Supreme Court's determination on whether to grant certiorari is pending and a decision is not expected until 2017. Until these legal matters are resolved, sports betting remains impermissible in New Jersey.
