25th Raymond Memorial Wayne County Fair 1996 - 2021

The Raymond family's dedication and passion for training and racing standardbred horses all started with the dream of one man... Mike Raymond. Mike and his family spent many years of their lives training horses at the Wayne County fairgrounds. When it came time to racing, Mike raced the circuit at Buffalo, Batavia and Vernon Downs. However, the family's most memorable and enjoyable experiences were racing at the county fairs in New York.

The Raymond Memorial was started in 1996 at the Wayne County fair in remembrance of Mike Raymond for his many years of dedication to the racing world. On Saturday, August 7, 2021, the Raymond family will continue this tradition. It is moments like this that gives them great pleasure and also reminds them of fond memories of the past and the thrill of harness racing. This will be a special occasion for the family as it marks the 25th year of the Raymond Memorial. The family will be generously donated a memorial blanket in remembrance of their family members... Mike, Violet, Jean and Michael Raymond.
