Application Process Opens for Next Executive Director of Ethics Commission

The recruitment process is now open to hire the next Executive Director of the City of San Diego Ethics Commission, in anticipation of the current Executive Director's retirement in April 2025. The application filing deadline is August 12, 2024.

The Commission's seven-member board anticipates hiring the next Executive Director by November 2024, with the appointment required by the City Charter to then be confirmed by a vote of the San Diego City Council. This position is scheduled to begin work in January 2025. The position will begin with a three-month overlap and training period with the current Executive Director, providing for an effective transition upon her retirement.

Please note: Ethics Commission staff is not involved in the recruitment process for this position. Please do not contact the Ethics Commission directly about this application process. The process is being handled by an outside search firm, CPS HR Consulting.
