In re: Scheduling Conference

MINUTE ENTRY

Courtroom: CCB 301

2:00 p.m. This is the time set for a telephonic scheduling conference before Special Master Susan Ward Harris regarding the claims made by and the objections to that portion of the watershed file report 112-17-BAD-001 that concerns land owned by Jane and Michael Charchenko, Daylon and Polly Eddington, Allan and Suzanne Judd, Trustees of the Lane and Sandra B. Peterson Trust, Rebecca Rowley, and Stuart and Marjorie Baird.

A record of the proceedings is made digitally in lieu of a court reporter.

The following attorneys appear telephonically:

- Bradley Pew on behalf of ASARCO
- David A. Brown on behalf of landowners/claimants, Jane and Michael Charchenko, Daylon and Polly Eddington, Allan and Suzanne Judd, Trustees of the Lane and Sandra B. Peterson Trust, Rebecca Rowley, and Stuart and Marjorie Baird
- Mark A. McGinnis on behalf of Salt River Project
- Kimberly R. Parks on behalf of Arizona Department of Water Resources
- Joe P. Sparks and Laurel Herrmann on behalf of San Carlos Apache Tribe
- Lucas Christian on behalf of Tonto Apache Tribe

Mr. Brown addresses the Court with a brief history and moves to consolidate the landowners/claimants' case with contested case W1-11-1675 so that the entire Barney matter would be resolved as part of the case concerning the St. David Irrigation District.

The Court will take no action today on Mr. Brown's request and will wait until the next status conference once it is confirmed that Karma Foods has signed the petition to have it land included within the St. David Irrigation District. At that time this case will be consolidated with contested case W1-11-1675.

Mr. Pew has no objections or comments and requests that the disclosure statement deadline of October 23, 2020 be vacated.

IT IS ORDERED granting ASARCO's request and vacating the order to file a disclosure statement.

2:07 p.m. Hearing concludes.

A copy of this order is mailed to all persons listed on the Court-approved mailing list.
