The Court notes that the Statement of Claimants were assigned to Martha Ann Parker Collier.

Danielle Brownrigg states that Ms. Collier passed away a year ago, the wells are registered in the names of Norine and Troy Brownrigg, and that they intend to use the three (3) wells for domestic and irrigation purposes.

The Court informs Ms. Brownrigg that a procedure exists whereby she and her parents can meet and confer with ADWR and the objectors about this case to determine if the objections could be resolved and the parties could agree on water rights. Alternatively, a date for a scheduling conference could be set which would include a date for a hearing at which time Ms. Brownrigg and her parents would have the opportunity to put on evidence in support of their claims for water rights.

Daniel Brownrigg states that she and her parents prefer that a meeting be set with ADWR regarding the water rights.

IT IS ORDERED directing Ms. Parks to set up a meeting before April 30, 2020 with ADWR, the objectors, and the following landowners or representatives of the landowners: Norine and Troy Brownrigg, and Danielle Brownrigg, daughter of Norine and Troy Brownrigg.

ADWR will set a meeting with the Brownriggs and all objectors and notify Ms. Brownrigg via email at Brownrigglawfirm@gmail.com.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Danielle Brownrigg be added to the Court-appointed mailing list. Her address is P. O. Box 958, Oracle, AZ 85623.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Norine and Troy Brownrigg shall remain on the Court-appointed mailing list.

2:09 p.m. Hearing concludes.

A copy of this order is mailed to all persons listed on the Court approved mailing list.
