The Court inquires of Ms. Scriven whether there is a dispute as to the ownership of the property in this case.

Ms. Scriven affirms. There is an open probate case (Case number PB2021-00290) regarding the property.

The Court inquires whether the estate is taking the position that it has title to the property.

Ms. Scriven explains that the probate judge in that case ordered that no one shall change titles to the property, but that was not followed. The probate case was filed September 20, 2021. An inventory was filed but was not acceptable and a new inventory is being taken by a third party.

The Court inquires of Ms. Dinwiddie whether she has attended any of the probate hearings.

Ms. Dinwiddie affirms and indicates that she put the properties in her name on the advice of her attorney.

The Court inquires of Ms. Dinwiddie whether she has filed a Statement of Claimant or any other document with ADWR at this time, whether a map has been prepared for the irrigation areas of tax parcel 104-41-001, and whether an answer has been received from the National Archives in response to her document request.

Ms. Dinwiddie answers no to all.

The Court will stay this case pending a decision in the probate matter regarding the ownership of the land.

There being no objections,

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED staying this case until the ownership of the property is determined in the probate proceeding.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Ms. Scriven shall file a status report in this case by December 20, 2022. The status report shall identify any motions pending or trial dates set to resolve the ownership of the property. If no proceedings are in place to determine the ownership of the property, the status report shall identify the next status conference set by the probate court or status report due to the probate court and the action proposed by the personal representative to resolve ownership to tax parcel 104-41-001. The status report shall be mailed to all persons listed on the court-approved mailing list.

Ms. Dinwiddie and Ms. Scriven update their addresses on the record.

3:17 p.m. Matter concludes.

A copy of this order is mailed to all persons listed on the Court-approved mailing list.
