Application & Process Roadmap for SC- QTL

This section is intended to provide information to reader and access control manufactures willing to test their reader (and eventually the system attached to it) against the TWIC specification. The whole process is summarized on the following picture.

Applicant

6 – Once a year, Applicant is required to update/certify its reader on the SC-QTL

1 - Submit application For a given reader type

Applicant Test Facility

2 – TSA Approves and supplies Test Cards & related documents

3 – Product Related correspondence, Questions, Clarifications

4 – Applicant provides test results and details About the reader to be published

TSA – TWIC- SC-QTL Program Management Office

5 – TSA publishes the Applicant's reader information on the public SC-QTL

TWIC Product Users - Relying Parties

Self-Certified SC-QTL TWIC Readers' List

7 – Select from the SC-QTL what they want/need

Process Steps
1. Apply
2. TSA approves/supplies test package
3. Correspondence
4. Applicant provide test results
5. TSA publishes on the SC-QTL
6. Once a year Applicant certifies its product is available
7. Relying parties pick/chose from the current SC-QTL