

ROAD TEST REQUIREMENTS

You are applying for a passenger-vehicle, Class 3 driver's license. Make sure you do not have an outstanding traffic violations. You must follow all of the examiner's instructions.

See Road Test brochure for more information

---

Required Documents

You must have the following original documents for the test vehicle. (Photocopy, self-printed and/or faxed documents are not acceptable)

- A current and valid Hawaii Instruction Permit
- A valid and current Vehicle Certificate of Registration (Temporary dealer registration is not acceptable)
- Proof of a current Hawaii Motor Vehicle Insurance Card
- A valid and current Vehicle Inspection Certificate

Minors (under the age of 18) must ALSO provide:

- A current and valid Instruction Permit that was held for at least 180 days
  - A Driver Education Student Completion Certificate
  - A Behind-the-Wheel Student Completion Certificate
-

Test Vehicle Requirements

The test vehicle will need to pass an assessment conducted by the examiner before the driving test.

The examiner will inspect vehicle's equipment and condition to ensure the car is safe and can be legally operated on public roadways.

See Road Test brochure for more information

Mandatory Requirements

The licensed driver accompanying you must have a valid driver's license and be 21 years of age or older, and must remain at the road test office for the duration of the appointment and testing.

The test vehicle must have a valid and current vehicle registration, proof of insurance and valid and current safety inspection and must pass the pre-check conducted by the examiner.

See Required Documents and the Road Test brochure above for more information.

The vehicle identification number (VIN) on the vehicle registration and proof of insurance must match.

You must not be late for your appointment. If you are late, you will need to reschedule the test.

You must follow the examiner's instructions.

---

Driving Practice Requirements

Ample supervised driving practice is required and recommended. Practice driving for six months if you are 16 – 17 years of age. Practice using the vehicle that will be used for the road test. Practice on the streets of the test site to be familiar with the area.

View the Road Test video for helpful tips

Some reasons for failing the road test:

- Not demonstrating safe driving habits
- Not able to safely operate a vehicle
- Cannot apply knowledge of traffic laws
- Dangerous actions, violations or collision
- Not following examiner instructions